First and Foremost. To the Kauss family, I am so sorry for your loss, my heart is heavy for the family. This world is not as great after a great person passes, however, what he has shared and taught will never be lost and will carry his legacy. Mr. Kauss, I have always respected you and your friendship. I especially will miss when we had our one on ones and you would give me advice and almost liken it unto your family. The way you talked so highly your wife, and proudly of your kids, how happy about your grandchildren will always be remembered. I will forever miss your hugs and telling me your proud. Oh for some reason I like Green Tabasco now. I still do not like the Packers, and I think I can finally give some sound advice. Don’t rest too easy, you have more to teach, see you when I do. Your loving and respectful friend, S.Miner
