Nick and Tanya, Domanik and Alaina, we've thought of your beautiful family numerous times since we moved. We can close our eyes and see their beautiful smile. They were such a precious gift! Our love and support are with you all. "He knew there'd be moments when no earthly words could take away your sorrow. And no human eyes could see what you're going through. When you've taken your last step and done all that you can do, He will lift your heavy load and carry you." - Hilary Weeks, He'll Carry You

Hello to my little Brother Nic. The goal of life is not easily achieved. It is the result of a lifetime of dreaming, hoping, striving, accepting, adjusting, and achieving. Faith in God, in others, in life itself, helps us in those moments of doubt when faith in ourselves is shaken by the realities of existence. But without those moments of despair our ultimate triumphs would be robbed of our deepest satisfactions. Ralf Eckert This gave me a sense of why we are here. I hope that in the coming days and nights that you and your sweet wife can find some comfort and pease in your faith in God and let it help your testimony grow with this experience. Love Bob

- Bob Marshall

What a beautiful soul! I am so touched by you and look forward to being able to meet you some day in person. What joy you must be giving all your family and ancestors in getting to know you and getting to spend this time with you! Look for my sister Michelle Gore Tuke- she loves bright colors too and I think you two are very much alike. Give her hugs for me! Thank you for touching all of our lives! Carry on your good works!
