

Alan Roy Fereday

March 13, 1962 ~ January 7, 2024

Our sympathy and prayers are with your family at this time. May god give you comfort that you need and bless you with the the understanding of where he is now. God bless and be with you all. Sincerely Ann Kenner and family.

- Ann Kenner and family

I’m so sorry for the families loss. Alan was a really good man and will be sorely missed. Knowing his battle with leukemia these last few years , it has put such a heavy emotional burden on the family, but his suffering is over. He’s healthy and happy on the other side of the veil. I know he will miss you all as you will miss him. Lisa, I’m here to talk anytime you need a shoulder to lean on.

- Sonja Wright

To Lisa and family, In my interactions with Alan his fierce love and concern for his family was always evident. You all were his first priority. I am so sorry for your loss and my heart and prayers are with you!!

- Kathy Truman

Lisa, Such a beautiful tribute of love today to the life your husband lived. Praying you & your family will feel peace and comfort in the coming days. My Love ■

- Suzanne Line

Lisa, I'm so sorry for your loss. It's hard to let go of loved ones and feel the emptiness left behind. I pray you will be blessed with a blanket of peace from the Holy Ghost and a knowledge that your husband will be ever present to love and help you as you continue your journey here in mortality. I love you and feel so blessed to know you and serve with you.

- Aleta Fowler

So sorry to hear about Alan. It's a sad club, no one asked to be a part of. May the Lord bless you with peace, comfort, hope and understanding.

- Julie Kraus