

Amaryllis Lindsey Tippetts

September 14, 1943 ~ May 2, 2023

So sorry to hear this. I knew her through my Rast cousins and I also know Mindy, Joe’s wife. Condolences to your family.

- Pam Rast Toone

Sorry to hear about Sister Lindsey, but it was great serving with you two in the Florida Mission. (And fun taking your place in Hollywood, Larry!). May the best be with you and have peace and joy!

- Elder Bob Lowe

I was so sorry to hear about Amaryllis. She has been such a special friend for so many years. I treasure all the wonderful times we had together with the other roomies. I send love and best wishes to Larry and the whole family.

We wish to express our sorrow at the news of Amaryllis passing from mortality . She will be missed by all who knew her, but we know she will be awaiting family and friends on the other side of the veil..

Amaryllis and I were roommates at Heritage Halls at BYU. It was because of her example that I chose to serve a mission and we have been friends through the years sharing the good times as well as the hard times. Her deep love of the Savior along with her pithy sense of humor has blessed my life and given me encouragement and strength. She loved her family and friends so very much. Her funeral was a beautiful expression of her life and the things that were important to her. May you have peace in the hard times but lots of happy, joyful memories as you remember Amaryllis' life. She epitomized love.

Amaryllis and I have laughed together, prayed together, and cried together over the past 60 years. She is my eternal friend. My heart hurts and I will truly miss her, but I am so grateful to know that she no longer suffers. I know heaven is smiling with her return. The joy she brought to us in our earthly journey is now extended to eternity. Amar was my treasured BYU roommate and my Maid of Honor. I am so thankful for her influence in my life. Amar, an elect woman, met life's challenges with faith, dignity, and humor. Larry, we pay tribute to you for being the love of her life and her rock. Amaryllis' talents and tender caring have blessed our lives in so many ways. Our roommate reunions will continue when we meet again. With Love, Dawn (and Gary, too)

- Dawn Smith

Larry, We were so sorry to hear of Amaryllis' passing. The two of you have had such an important impact on our lives. We appreciate having had the opportunity to know and work with you. We are impressed with your lives, your testimonies, your examples. Wish we could have been to the funeral to let you know of our love and support. May the Lord bless you.
