

Louis Burtran Bigler III

April 3, 1935 ~ August 2, 2023

Judy, we truly lost an industry giant. Lou was such a mentoring influence for me. His positive, calm demeanor was a virtue few possessed. I join with many others in offering sincere condolences to you and your family. John

- John Stone

Our many good thoughts are heading to the extended family of Lou Bigler! We look forward to joining you and his many friends and family for his celebration of life (party!) sometime down the road. We could fill many pages about our love for, and memories of, Lou. We had the pleasure of enjoying life with Lou and Judy (the Salt Shakers) since the early 1980s. Many trips, parties and friendships resulted from our gatherings over these many years. We were clients of Lou, and his kindness extended to us in that role. Our love to all -- Gary & Paulette Birdsall

- Gary and Paulette Birdsall

Lou was a great friend and will be missed by all.

- Bud Sullivan

I am so glad that I had the opportunity to work with Lou, I appreciated his kindness & warm spirit. Sending my love & prayers for Lou & his family.

- Lisa Brown

Deepest condolences to Lou's family ♥ Lou was a very dear and caring uncle to me and a loving brother to my late mother, whom he called 'my protector.' He was wonderful at telling family histories and he had amazing memory recall; my son, in particular, loved listening to his stories about his early life. He was sharp and insightful 'until the end' - a very astute and remarkable man. My son Cameron, and I, will both miss him very much. ♥ Michelle Melroy Alnawafleh

- Michelle Melroy Alnawafleh

Judy, My sincere condolences. Lou had such a great way of putting a person at ease. I loved my visits to his office and our occasional breakfasts or business lunches together. It was always a joy to work with him and he'll be missed.

- Sam Pitt

My wife and I are sorry for your loss. Remembering uncle Burt and aunt Hazel. Spent many days at the Farm, it was great! Uncle Burt told me and my wife to be in a visit that we would live in West Joran. Cindy and I have lived in west Jordan for over 40 years. Again, very fond memories.

- Marlin Bigler

May his sould rest in peace. Prayers with his family.

- Devangi Shah

Lou was a member of our organization (FFR) since 2017 and was always a ray of sunshine when attending our meetings and interacting with our team. You could tell he enjoyed this "hobby" of selling life insurance when most would be thinking about retirement and taking it easy. I am so sorry for your loss. May all the wonderful memories provide your family comfort.

- Susan

One would be hard pressed to find a greater example of excellence and integrity than what this marvelous man exhibited. Lou, you will be greatly missed by all of us that were fortunate to have had our lives intersect with yours. Peace be the journey.

- John Purdue

Lou did have a calming effect on his friends, as I was one of them for over 25 years! And yes, he never gave up the fight to insure his friends against life’s “possibles”. I admired his strength, both physical & mental, and will consider him one of my cherished friends forever more. He loved life, he loved connecting with people of all walks, and he had a keen brain for problem-solving. As he struggled with his illness, he refused to admit weakness, refused to give up, and in, my eyes, that kept him going longer as he was still that brave farm boy!❤■

- Gina DiSera

It's been many years since I last connected with Lou. He was one the founding members of a life insurance producer study group that I was a member of at First Financial Resources. I was one of the "young" guys who was getting distracted by anything new or shiny. Lou was the first to remind us of the real reason of what life insurance was for. I remember a man who was beyond classy and wore his mission on his sleeve. What a wonderful legacy to leave. My deepest condolences to his family.

- Max Jong

Marilynn and I were saddened to hear of the death of Lou Bigler. He was not only a friend but a business associate for many years. We both began in the insurance industry about the same time and I can attest that there was no one better or more concerned about the financial welfare of others than Lou. He was smart, knowledgable, honest and sincere and blessed the lives of many people. His success and longevity in a tough business speaks for itself. Lou was a man of trust, decency, personality and humility and the best insurance and financial consultant I have ever known. Thank you Lou, for the many memories. We will never forget your contribution to our lives.

- Dan Marriott

I was saddened to read the obit of a fellow business associate as well as a great friend. I send my sincere best condolences to Judy & all the family. Kitty & I now live. In Cedar City.

- Kevin C. Lundy

I was privileged to be business partners with Lou and Judy for many years. Lou was a consummate professional and always very kind. He remains the named broker on a handful of policies I bought for my children about 25 years ago....and was recently privileged to take a call from Lou suggesting I do something with the cash value that had accrued on the $25/month payments taken out of my bank account monthly over that 25 years. I was amazed at how vibrant he still was and was grateful for his ever-present wit and kind way. My most sincere condolences to the family of this wonderful man. I'll now dutifully go invest in life insurance.

- Eric Leavitt

Lou was a lovely man and neighbor. Growing up I helped take their trash up and we enjoyed seeing both Judy and Lou out on walks. I will always appreciate the kindness he showed and am grateful I was able to help him and Judy out when necessary. May he rest peacefully.

- Carly McAleer