

Ardis Macfarlane

October 6, 1932 ~ August 10, 2025

We love Ardis. We are so happy we got to know her during the time we lived in Yale Ward. She is a beautiful, strong spirited woman. When I think back to her frustration with not being able to drive and get herself where she wanted to go, I see her relishing her freedom from an aging body. We send our condolences in your loss.
