We are shocked and so sad about this! Nicole was a dear friend on the soccer sideline and the track stands for over 11 years while we cheered our girls on! Nicole is pure light! We adore Nicole and will continue to be the biggest cheerleaders for Willow and the family! May God’s love surround your family! We love you!

“Lord Jesus Christ, by your own three days in the tomb, you hallowed the graves of all who believe in you and so made the grave a sign of hope that promises resurrection even as it claims our mortal bodies.“ May the Lord comfort you in this time of sorrow and give you hope of His promise for everlasting life.

- Stephen Ley Family

Nicole, my beautiful daughter-in -law, I will miss you every day until I too pass away. You were a wonderful blessing to my son Adam and your darling children Nick and Willow.. You were fun, funny, and most of all loving. You were everybody's favorite. I hope you find the peace you were seeking. And you somehow know how much we love you and miss you already.

- Sharon Kay

Cara Nicole, non riesco proprio a trovare le parole per descrivere l'immenso vuoto che hai lasciato, non solo alla tua famiglia americana, ma anche in quella italiana. Abbiamo passato dei giorni gioiosi e bellissimi in tua compagnia e avrei voluto tanto raggiungerti nella tua casa e stare tutti insieme. Purtroppo non sarà possibile perché tu sei volata via...troppo presto! Spero solo che tu, ora, abbia trovato la pace. Riposa in pace bellissima anima...Condoglianze a tutta la famiglia Collins e Sapronetti. ❤■

There are no words to describe such a loss. I had the pleasure of meeting Nicole just briefly, but that time was one filled with great joy, happiness, and gratitude for all experiences. During the limited interaction I had with Nicole, her love for her family was readily apparent. Even the mere mention of her new grandchild brought an enormous smile to her face. I wish the entire extended family peace and love during this truly difficult time. God bless.

Nicole is one of the sweetest people on this planet. She reminds me of sunshine and the warmth that comes with it. Any room she stepped into was immediately so much more enjoyable just with her presence. I feel so lucky to have grown up with her and her amazing family. I have countless memories of her, Willow and I simply talking in her kitchen, going to parks, going on trips together, family dinners, and that's barely scratching the surface. I remember one time, for some reason, I came over and Willow immediately showed me that in their kitchen right next to the window facing the backyard, was a box of baby chickens. Chicks that were barely bigger than a quarter. Nicole watched me and Willow like a hawk as we picked each one up in awe of the cuteness. Letting kids as small as we were hold such delicate animals was so risky but she trusted us and I love that. Id look up at her smiling and laughing and she'd just smile back. Her iconic smile that is so beyond contagious. Such a sweet, beautiful soul who this world will not be the same without. My heart aches for her sweet sweet family and they are in my thoughts and prayers every single day. Adam, Nick, and Willow - I love you so very much, and I am so so sorry. I know that 'sorry' will not help the way you're feeling right now and I wish I could take the heartache you feel away. I would in an instant. I love you all so much. Nicole - this family and world will never be the same without you and you will be missed beyond words. I love you so very much. Thank you for so many amazing memories and for sharing your kindness with everyone you met. Give my dad a big old hug for me. Until we meet again ♥■

Dear Adam, When we are alive we often forget about all the people whose lives we affect. Your life has been forever altered for the worse, as have been the lives of Nicholas and Willow. Like you, Nicole's father Charles and her grandmother Gayle will never get over this tragedy. And there are dozens of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends who loved her very much. I see that her Italian cousins Michela, Enzo and Daniel made the effort to pay their respects. Other Italian cousins were lucky enough to have not only met Nicole, Adam and the kids, but played guitar and sung songs with them when Nicole and family visited Italy years ago. The language barrier did nothing to hide Nicole's desire to "Viva La Vita Bella". There are too many questions and too few answers as to how a tragedy like this could have happened. All that grieving family and friends can do is offer our condolences and what support we can to you and your family. Please accept our sincere condolences for your loss. We hope that one day you will again be able to live the beautiful life while cherishing Nicole's memory. Cousin Scott & Darcy

I’m so very sad to hear about Nicole… I didn’t really know her personally but I do know that when her mom was passing away, she would sing to her and she had a very good voice.. It’s the people that are still living that need the most prayers right now during this most difficult time. So my prayers go out to her husband, and her kids and grandbaby and her brother Aaron… May God bless her family members and I hope Nicole found peace and can now be with her mom and any family members that have passed on. Rest in Peace Now…❤■

- Angela (Aaron Wallace’s friend)
