

Asher Lawrance Hardman

December 28, 2003 ~ March 25, 2026

Even with 2 days to think about it no words seem adequate. I'm so sorry for your loss. My heart breaks for you all. He was such a light in the world. I remember fondly him as a kid and how brilliant and funny he was. My favorite was when he insisted on spelling his name Ash5er but let us know not to worry the 5 was silent. He will be missed. All my love I'm so sorry.

- Summer

I taught Asher in Sunbeams!! This breaks my heart!! I send prayers of comfort and peace to his family!!

- Shawn Hurt

What a light Asher is in our world. Every game of Unstable Unicorns, every brunch on the weekend, every time we omit broccoli from a recipe, every daffodil we see, every anime we discuss, we will smile and think fondly of Asher. He is a good human in this world and we are so lucky to have known him. It simply isn't enough time. It's what we will always wish we had more of. We share in the sorrow, the loss, the grief, and send our deepest strength and love to those who knew him. To his family, we love you, we see you, and we are so sorry for your loss. We miss him and love him still.

- The Ricord Family

I didn’t know him personally, but I know how much light he had shown to people, how much he meant to everyone around him. He will always be loved and remembered.

Hi Lori, I am truly heartbroken to hear about the loss of your son. There are no words that can ease such unimaginable pain, but please know you and your family are in my thoughts and prayers. I am so deeply sorry for your loss and am holding you close in my heart during this time of profound sorrow.

- Ariel Gonzalez

Asher was such a kind soul. He always said "Good Morning" in the hall, even though I never had him in a class. Please know that he was loved and appreciated here in ECE, too. We are devastated at his loss. May his memory be a blessing, and may every new sunrise bring a "Good Morning".

- Cindy Furse

I was deeply saddened to hear of his passing. Even though it has been several years since he was in my class at the U, he has remained someone I have remembered. He stood out—not only for always being present and engaged, often sitting near the front—but for the genuine warmth he brought with him. His smile was consistent and sincere, and it made a lasting impression. I also remember seeing him at department events, often with the same close group of friends, and it was clear he valued those connections and brought a sense of ease and belonging to those around him. As faculty, we meet many students, but only a few stay with us in this way. He was one of those students for me, and he will be remembered. My heartfelt condolences to his family, friends, and all who knew and loved him.

Meus sentimentos aos pais, e todos familiares. Fico muito triste com essa partida tão precoce. O Asher um rapaz educado, e sorridente, dando risada das Brasileiras tentando se comunicar com o Portunhol (Português com Espanhol), ahh eu e minhas irmãs vamos guardar seu sorriso . Sinto muito, que Deus conforte toda a família,e de força principalmente aos pais e aosirmãos .■■

Oh, Lori, my prayers of comfort are being sent to you over the passing of your beloved son, Asher. He sounds like such an outstanding young man. You will miss him so much, I know, for two weeks ago, we lost our oldest son, Bill Allen in Dallas TX. Our hearts are broken no doubt just like yours is broken. Know that you are loved. Sending sympathy. May Heavenly Father bless you with peace that you will see Asher again. Love, Nadine Allen (your Garden Park 7th ward neighbor)
