

Atlanta Jane Brown

November 16, 1990 ~ November 25, 2024

Fly high beautiful angel. May you find peaceful rest in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ. We will forever miss your sweet spirit and beautiful smile. Always loved and in our hearts. May God comfort all those you left behind in the days ahead. Until we meet again. ■

I am so deeply sorry for the loss of your beloved daughter Atlanta (Janie) Brown. No parent should ever have to experience the loss of a child. She has touched so many lives and her memory will always continue. I hope that brings you comfort as the days go on. Scott Chandler

I'm deeply saddened by the news of Janie's passing. No words I say can ever be enough. Janie was always so sweet and beautiful, and her smile was so beautiful it would light up a room. She always called me "Aunt Carolyn" which was so special. Heaven will have a special Angel. Please know you are all in my thoughts and prayers. Love you all.

We only flew with your daughter one time on 50 minute flight from Denver to Salt Lake City. (Just a few weeks ago) She was a true angel and we knew that from the start. May god bless you and your family. She was so beautiful and we will remember her. Peace and love. Will and Jason Pearce

My first born granddaughter. oh how I will miss the big smile on her face and then big brown eyes. She will live in my heart forever and ever. I will see her one sweet day and we will Rejoice in his name. Love you, baby girl always and forever. You are in my heart Nanny.

You made me a grandfather for the very first time! I was so happy & proud. My most memorable moment when you were a baby was everyone had somewhere to go and I said I would baby sit you. Boy o Boy, I had no idea what I was in for. You literally cried (loudly) from the time your mom and dad left, until the time they got back. I tried everything from singing to you, rocking you, and even making funny faces . Lol. RIP My beautiful granddaughter. I will always be so proud of you! Love Paw Paw

I'm still in shock that she's gone. Just doesn't seem real. Although I didn't see her often, I'm gonna miss her dearly. It's so sad to think I'll never see her beautiful smile again. Thankful for all the memories we shared. Becoming an aunt at 8 years old was more like becoming a big sister. I love you so much Janie Brown. See you on the other side ❤■

It was a pleasure flying with you my dear friend Atlanta, we meet briefly during a work trip to Ecuador, when I was very new to be a flight attendant. You were kind funny and full of joy and a beautiful light to others around you. It is heartbreaking that you are not longer among us. I am certain you are spreading your wings ■ in heaven. I am going to miss all your funny posts on instagram that always brought a smile to my face.
