Narda & Steve, I am so sorry for your loss, sending love and prayers to you and your sweet family!

- Ariah Butler

Sorry to hear of this. I remember how cute and full of smiles she was when you two first got them.As parents we do our best and trust in God to help us through the good times and bad. While you go through your rollercoaster of emotions the next few months and years, remember God loves your family very much and that this trial will pass. .The greatest blessings follow the greatest trial -hang on and hold fast to the rod.

- Paul-& Sharon Szymanski

It is with a heavy heart that I mourn the loss of your Savannah with you. I remember talking with you when the twins first became a part of the family. I marveled at your dedication as parents and your desire to share your love with them. I have watched as you all have grown over the years. The journey has taken you to so many new and uncharted spaces. This space, of all spaces... It is one that asks the impossible of a family. I can't imagine the strength it takes to let your daughter move ahead on this road. As you walk this path, please know that you are not alone. I take comfort in my knowledge of your deep and unending faith. I have no doubt that you do too. I send all my thoughts and hope that you may find moments of peace as you say your final goodbyes. While I cannot be there in person, I am there in spirit. The other day, my class and I took a moment of silence to send our healing thoughts to every parent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle, cousin, grandparent... who is grieving the loss of a loved one. It was a somber moment, but it was a moment filled with an understanding of the gift of time we are give to spend together with those we love. My students and I will take another moment of silence on Friday to honor your daughter and all the other young people whose lives have been lost this year. Thinking of you with all my love, strength, and friendship - becca

- Rebecca Richardson

Oh my goodness Narda...I am so very sorry for your loss. What a wonderful Mama you are. I pray God comfort and peace will be with you at this very very difficult time. Love you friend. You are in my prayers. ❤■■■

- Tanya Henderson

Narda and Steve , I am so sorry for your loss of your beautiful daughter. Prayers on your behalf will be heard from our home that your grief will be comforted. Remember our sorrows will not be eternal and Joy will prevail forever .

- Christine Wihongi

Dear Steve and narda. We are so sad to hear this news. We can tell she was a very special daughter and that you guys did an amazing job as parents. We don’t know a lot of things but we do know Heavenly Father has a plan higher than ours. We only need to trust him. How great full we are for the plan of happiness where we know for sure we will be together again we send our love to you

- Monica and Oscar bravo

Dear Emmett Family, I am sorry to be so slow in sending my condolences to your family. Please know that they are sincere while tardy. Savannah and all of your children were such fun and delightful children to have at school. You were and are such obviously wonderful parents. I was so sorry to hear of the mental health challenges that Savannah faced. They are far too common in our world today. I am so sorry for her pain. I have a testimony that she is now in a place of peace and has left those earthly struggles behind. I hope that you can feel peace as well in the days ahead. It was a privilege to know each of you at Overlake. Sincerely, Jan Johnson

- Jan Johnson

I was the aunt of natika Brown im so sorry for your loss.
