In a way it is fitting that I heard of Bruce's passing through an online miniature community. I will never forget how Bruce made me feel so welcomed into the miniatures community at my first houseparty in Salt Lake City over 30 years ago. His humor and grace was evident every time he was at the microphone. He gave so much to the community, and I feel so lucky to have known him over the years. I loved that after retirement from miniatures, he and Judy shared in my love for travel. I'm glad that in a small way I could give back the enthusiasm and warmth that came to me. I still remember the picture of them with the Galapagos tortoise! I wish I could hug you in person, Judy. My heart goes out to all who are grieving today. I will remember Bruce with love.

Dear Judy, Please accept my condolences. I am looking at a row of Steinke dome kits (actually finished) that are sitting on my fireplace mantle and remembering Bruce. Take care, Jen
