Words cannot express the loss the world is feeling with Jessica's sudden death. She was an inspiration to me and gave me courage to do things I would never would have attempted. She was a dear friend to my daughter Emily. Emily called Jess her sister and loved her dearly. Her spirit will live with each of us who she touched forever. Love that girl!

Although I did not know Jessica I knew Sid and Mary very well for many years, and Sid and Teri Lynn also. Please know how saddened I am to hear of your loss of another daughter. Having lost a son I know the grief. Please know my heart and prayers are with all of you at this time and may the Lord bless you with comfort and His never ending love.

Jessica's obituary is breathtakingly beautiful. I just keep reading it over and over. My daughter, Mia, introduced Jessica to me in Trader Joe's . she was disarmingly very happy and so beautifully pregnant! As Jessica walked off , We both acknowledged how adorable she was...so pretty and friendly. Mia was thrilled for her pregnancy. Remembering Jessica's supreme happiness, I felt all the more stricken when Mia called to give me the horrific news. Thank you for your perfect touching obituary. Seeing what an evolved and gorgeous human being she was....how she adored You, Tom , loved her dog , dearly loved and enjoyed family, had such good times in nature and with friends , and no doubt, deeply relished her short time with Wolfe, made me all the more want to know this lovely girl I hope to meet again "at that great day. " We love your name, Wolfe! You brought your mother and father such joy! All of you will be in Steve's and my prayers for sometime to come. Your loss is huge . I cannot express fully just how terribly sorry we are,

Dearest Tommy two- tone and family, I am absolutely heart broken for you. I cannot even imagine the huge sadness that you all are experiencing. While I had not yet had the opportunity to meet Jessica, I feel like I know her through this amazing declaration to her. She was truly an amazing woman who was perfect for you, Tommy. And, little Wolfe is gorgeous like you both. My prayers are with you. Good night for now and may God's blessing be with you all at this unbelievable time in your life. Hugs and Kisses to all, Paige and Brian

My heart aches, although I did not know Jessica I am aware of her legacy and sense the ripples in time that have been left in her wake. Life is eternal and there is a higher power governing this tragedy. Let not your hearts be troubled and take the Lord's hand as we all are grief stricken he knows our sorrows. Much Love.

I only had the pleasure to spend a couple of weekends with Jessica since my cousin, Tom and she got married. I'm lucky to have had those couple of weekends. I saw an amazing woman and immediately understood why my family loved her so much. Her kindness and knowledge was impressive and I wish I had more of those weekends to know her better. Tom and Jess were absolutely sole mates to the very core. Tommy be strong, you will make it through this. Wolfe will show you bits of Jessica every day as he grows and you will smile. I love you.

To the Baucoms and everyone who knew her, The sudden loss of one of our own Yellowstone Ranch Family is a hard hit. It has been many years since we have all been together, but my heart is with all of you during this time. I'm so glad that she had such a beautiful place to foster a lifelong love of the outdoors and such a wonderful family to call her own. I am sending all my love.

So very sorry for the loss of such a young woman who was so beautiful in so many ways. Her spirit will live on with Tom and Wolfe and all those whose lives she touched. Indeed, she does inspire us to get out of our comfort zones and experience life.

We only had the privilege of working with Jessica for a year, but she left us a lasting gift. Our home in Park City shines because of Jessica's vision and dedicated hard work (even up to the last days of her pregnancy). I will miss our plans to continue our relationship and my opportunity to spend time with one of the coolest people I have ever met. My family and I send our deepest condolences to Tom and Wolfe and her extended family and friends.

I just read about Jessica's story in People. As another equestrian mom, I was moved by her passions and her devotion to life. My sincere condolences to her family. I hope it gives you some measure of comfort that even strangers are moved by the beauty of her life.

We are saddened with the terrible loss of your dear daughter. We remember her well as we were invited by Sid and Mary for a weekend at the ranch. Mary had Jessica and Tom wait on us, and indeed they did! They took such good care of us and we were so impressed with their knowledge of everything, their warmth and love, and their love for each other. It made the trip even more meaningful. As you know, we have experienced a similar tragedy and just want you to know your whole family is in our thoughts and prayers. It is a difficult journey and we sincerely pray you will find peace and joy in the wonderful memories you have tucked so preciousy away in your hearts. We love you and send our deepest sympathy and love. Tom & Jane Devastated to hear this news. From high school choir to cubbies, Jess inspired and occasionally consulted on my set designs, she nerded out with me over innovative architectural features, and sometimes sharing a giggle over weird ikea finds. I will hear her voice when I design spaces in the future, asking her angel eyes and heart to guide me. I will miss you always, friend. All my love to Tom & Wolfe, and family.
