

Brian Scott Sudweeks

April 21, 1985 ~ September 8, 2021

Brian I love you more than words can describe. You were my best Buddy always & even more so in the last 2 years. You always showed your love for me, I loved that you always called me "pretty lady". I'm so sorry I couldn't take the pain away for you. Forever your "GMA"

- Grandma

Brian, you have the sweetest soul of anyone I have ever known. I can't describe the hole in my heart, I keep waiting for you to come in my room & say what are you doing "pretty lady"! Do you want to play a game? You took care of me, I'm sorry I couldn't fix you, all I could do is love you, I'm sorry that wasn't enough. ■

- Colleen Steed (GMA)

Bubbles! hey man i still dont fully know how you got that nickname only that Matt came up with it and it stuck! it suited you though, your bubbly giggly attitude towards life never failed to bring people to your level of happiness and excitement. i have missed you and all the "missions" we would pull. you have been my best friend and partner in crime for so long, i thought we would have lots more time to make the sort of memories we always made together. i'm sorry we didnt make it rafting or camping or crashing together again. remember the time we crashed my 4-wheeler? thank god Cyrus made us wear helmets, im still not sure how your socks fell off... how bout the time you made me cut your cast off with power tools cuz it was ruining your summer break? i cant remember if that was your wrist or one of your ankle breaks, you were always breaking stuff!... as a matter of fact the first time Luke brought you over to hangout with us you were in a cast and on crutches! haha you were always there with me, doing dumb stuff and making memories that last a lifetime. I love you Brian. Give my dad a hug for me.

- mason

It was your smile Bubbles! You will always be remembered by your beautiful & infectious smile. Over the years I have loved Brian like my own son. You will be deeply missed. May You Rest In Peace. Julie (Mason's Mom)

- Julie Phillips

It was your smile Bubbles! You will always be remembered by your beautiful & infectious smile. Over the years I have loved Brian like my own son. You will be deeply missed. May You Rest In Peace. Julie (Mason's Mom)

- Julie Phillips

I am so sorry/sad about the loss of your son! I can’t imagine the grief your family is feeling now! I also lost a child and it was the hardest thing in my life. It still is! God bless you and your family now and in the days, months and years to come!

- Mitzy

I am so sorry/sad about the loss of your son! I can’t imagine the grief your family is feeling now! I also lost a child and it was the hardest thing in my life. It still is! God bless you and your family now and in the days, months and years to come!

- Mitzy

Brian, I love you more than life itself. You were my best "Buddy", I will miss you so very much. Be at peace, till we meet again. Love, GMA

- "GMA" Colleen Steed

Brian (Bubbles) my brother, I’ve been avoiding having to write in here because I just don’t want this to be the reality. But, I’m going to. Mostly to remind anyone who reads this just how marvelous you are and how brilliant your presence here on earth side was. When Mason and I started dating, I soon realized you were part of the package. His best friend, his brother from another mother, & his partner in crime. You have stayed a steady constant in our lives, even when you were struggling with your own. You greeted me every time with a tight embrace the way we should all hug and hold our loved ones. I watched you grow into a man, a father who loved his daughter fiercely, and someone who always tried to love people no matter what. You are an example of what this world needs; unconditional love, joy, and light. The world became dimmer when you left here, but I have complete faith that we will meet again. I am so grateful for the years of memories, laughter, adventures, and the time that we all were blessed with to share with you. I feel lucky to have known such a person that was honest enough to be himself, make mistakes, try hard, love deep, forgive, and accept people and invited them into your life just as they are. I hope we all can carry your attributes into our own lives, because in the end all that matters is how you loved. So bravo my brother! You did an amazing job. Now be free, fly high, and know your impact here will live on. I will be holding your family and loved ones in my prayers & I ask God to supply them with a comfort that only he can provide. Love you Brian Love , Mina

- Mina Matthews