

Carol Ann Stevenson Bergeson

March 19, 1933 ~ September 26, 2020

Carol Ann was my first and principal baby sitter. We lived on Lorraine Circle and she lived on the corner of Lorraine Avenue and 11th East. There is an LDS meetinghouse now where the Stevensons lived. Carol Ann would write her themes while tending me. She composed them in pen and ink, no mistakes, no do-overs, perfect the first time. Amazing. I was friends with and the same age as the twins: Jean and Jane. My love to both of them.

I live across the street from Carol Ann. I loved checking on her. She was the sweetest person. And I will cherish her hand-knitted dishcloth. I will miss seeing her sitting on her rocking chair on her porch knitting. I wish we would've had more time to get to know her. Much love and prayers to her entire family.

October 5,2020 Dear Haven and Carol Ann's Family, We were deeply saddened to hear of Carol Ann's passing. It came as a bit of a surprise because the last time we saw her was at Dad's funeral in February. She seemed to be the same cheerful, upbeat Carol Ann we have always known. When the funeral director invited people to come forward and view him for the last time, Carol Ann was first in line. My (Joe) daughter lived next door to her for several years. Often when we would visit we would encounter Carol Ann and have an extended visit that was most enjoyable. Since my daughter moved we have missed those visits. We will be making a donation in her honor to the Shriner's Hospital. Carol Ann was a true disciple of Christ. We were all blessed to have her in our lives. Sincerely, The Philip Bergeson Family Joseph Bergeson Kathy Bergeson Rash Elaine Bergeson Pitcher Evan Bergeson

One of my most influential and loving parental figures during my younger years. While living in the Avenues, Carol Ann often took me and my older brother, Nathan, to swim at the Deseret Gym with Peter and Jeremy. She was a loving and wise presence in my life, and always so sweet. She always seemed to sense when something wasn't right with me, asked the right questions, helped me address my concerns, redirected me to focus on more important and interesting things, and always made me feel loved. She was brilliant but not intimidating, always smiling and always had a big hug for me. She was surrounded by books and full of interesting facts and stories. I wanted to know more and read more when I was around her. I felt welcome, special, and important in her home. She always had something yummy to offer me to eat. I cherish my memories of time spent with her. She was truly an angel figure in my life. I'm sure Carol Ann will continue to do amazing things in small, thoughtful, and loving ways as she moves on to her next adventure. Our thoughts and prayers are with the family that our family loves so dearly.

What loves Haven and Carol Ann were! I was far from home (Wisconsin), Haven's secretary, having 4 impacted wisdom teeth out, and even though she didn't know me, and had two baby twin boys at home, she offered to have me come stay with them so she could take care of me. I didn't take her (them) up on it because I felt inadequate, undeserving, and years later, I realized it was because she and Haven were so loving. I didn't have to be worthy of love. Every word in Haven's and Carol Ann's obituaries and condolences speaks to the love they brought into the world. As Haven's secretary, I saw a constant stream of students and employees come for advice, counselling and good fellowship. It was a gift to know them.
