

Carol I. Zacher

November 1, 1942 ~ May 11, 2023

Oh how we loved Moo! We send our deepest condolences to the entire family.! We love you!

- Jonathan and Robin Butler

Sending prayers and hugs to you Chuck and all the family. Our love

- Randy and Sally Butler

I was so deeply saddened to hear that this beautiful, talented, and kind woman had passed away. Zachers, you are an amazing family and the loss of your sweet mother will be felt by the many people she blessed and touched.

- David Bullock

Oh how we loved her!!! She gave me much needed and wise counsel especially when I was new to Woods Cross! I always loved to see her talent! Things she sewed, things she cooked, aprons she painted and especially her musical abilities! We pray for your family to be comforted during this time and may your memories carry you through the sad days!!! We love you all! ♥■

- Lauri Hunter

Dearest Eden, Scott, and Gracie: The first word that comes to mind when I think about your beloved mother, and grandmother is 'gracious and generous.' Every time I met your mother she was so inclusive with her loving-kind actions, generosity, and fun conversation. Also, she always seemed genuinely interested in what I had to share and say. I loved getting tours of her garden, and what she loved. I am so sorry that she suffered from cancer. Yet, it was only a brief respite before she was welcomed home in the loving arms of her family, Jesus, and angels in heaven. Mostly, what I loved about your mother is how much she loved all of you. What a gift you were to each other, and your experiences both good, bad, mundane and all the in-betweens were jewels; created by your love of one another. I am so happy you had each other and thank you for sharing your family with me. It is a joyful memory in my life. xoxoxo, always and forever your friend, Shaunna and The Goldberry Clan

- Shaunna Goldberry

I wish I could have met Carol she must have been an incredible lady. It has been my honor to know and work for and with her son Jared for two decades. My deepest heart felt sympathy goes out to Charles all of your children friends and loved ones.

- Jim Steggell