Robert Jr., Mark, Kent, and Catherine & families - I am so sorry for the loss of your mom. She was a wonderful lady and I always looked forward to talking to her at family gatherings. As was written, she was unfailingly kind and cheerful - I always felt happier and better about myself after a conversation with her, even though I also felt I needed to stay on my toes to keep up intellectually. I'm sure my experience is not unique. I love my Aunt Caroline and I hope you all will be comforted as you mourn her passing and be filled with happy memories of the lives you shared with her. -- David Madsen

Caroline was a dear friend as well as a sweet sister in law. She always had something interesting to say as well as adding something she had just learned. She was curious and asked questions. She was always cheerful and happy and always willing to do a needed favor for a friend or neighbor. We will all miss her smile and cherish her friendship.

Dear Bob, Mark, Kent & Catherine: We are sad to learn of the passing of your sweet mother and grandmother. Your parents were our neighbors on Federal Heights Dr for almost 20 years. They moved into their home within weeks of us moving in. It was more than a pleasure to live next to them. There was always an endearing, contagious smile and time for a chat with Caroline. It takes a village to raise so many children and your mother and father were so influential in the raising of our children. The invitation and a stay in the mission home while they served in Oakland (along with Ann & Mark Farnsworth) to encourage teenage boys to serve a mission so that they might have a better understanding of a missionary experience. Teaching work ethics by allowing our children to water plants, house sitting, or dog watching. Our particular favorites are taking care of Gulliver, the dog that loved to "travel." The trampoline escapade of a four year old jumping to catch a glimpse of the beautiful outdoor wedding reception so elegantly planned for Catherine. Helpful suggestions for college applications, mentors and most of all the kind and gracious person who made a special effort to not only be good but to do good. She never complained about the next door neighbors rather always was warm and welcoming. Your mother was kind, gracious, positive, confident and very knowable and wise. She taught not only what she knew but also by being an example. It was a difficult and sad day when we moved, knowing that our wonderful neighbors would no longer be next to us. Their memories will always be with us. They are innumerable and cherished. May you be comforted. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Much Love, Blake & Robyn Ingram Bill, Katie, Sara, Megan, Annie, David and Sam
