

Daniel S. Ellis

December 20, 1926 ~ August 13, 2021

Mr. Ellis was my fifth grade teacher at William Penn Elementary. He was the BEST, all-time-favorite teacher. He was smart, patient, understanding and fun. Bless you, Mr. Ellis. You will always have a special spot in my heart!

- DeAnn Rasmussen Gallagher

Dan, Dan, Dan!! Best man in town! School, beach, meetings, vacations, home visits, etc., etc. Whenever we, or our families were together, or just you and I there, it was the best of times! LOVE to Randy and Linda, Carl and Kathy, Laura and Scott. Gale, Blair, and Joe.

- GaleHBateman

I remember Dan before he was married to ant Norma.i was upset because I wanted to give my girlfriend a Valentine l was only about twelve and she lived four miles away. He took me in his car to deliver it.I have never forgotten. That's been about seventy years ago

- Harvey Gutke

So sorry to hear about Dan, and sorry that I can't be in town for the funeral. I have only the best memories of Dan's wit and sense of humor, his imaginative and elaborate Christmas puzzles/gifts, the trips to California and the times at the beach cabins in Capistrano and Pacific Grove. (I was in Pacific Grove in 2019 and I hunted down the old house -- it's still there and still looks the same.) My heart goes out to the Ellises. Thanks so much for reaching out to me.

- Blair Bateman