
Chris Paul Halterman

August 27, 1957 ~ August 25, 2020

Chris you will be missed by your family and welcomed by your parents and grandparents. Peace is yours now and love and comfort to those that feel this great loss. God be with all of us.

- Carol Rideout

I am so sorry for your loss.

- Charlene Taylor

Farewell my friend. I will always remember the goods times we had together. Be at peace.

- Peter Duennebeil

R.I.P., Chris, in God’s loving embrace & may His perpetual light & love forever shine upon you, your family & loved ones❣■❣■❣■ I worked with Chris at the Salt Lake Surgical Center for many years. Although I was 14 years older then Chris we became close friends. He volunteered to change my air conditioning pads on my very high pitched roof...which was a very difficult thing to do & dangerous. I was so sad when Chris left the SLSC & missed him so much. He was a very kind, gentle young Man, with sparkling blue eyes & a fantastic smile.
