

Enos Chun-Hei Lui

February 23, 1998 ~ February 27, 2025

My deepest condolence to you Mickey and Sarah. May you be strengthened at this time.

- Isaac Mensah

To the Lui Family We send our love to each of you and please know you are in our thoughts and hearts. We are praying daily that you will feel enveloped in the arms of our Heavenly Father and Savior's love. We pray also that you will feel their comfort and strength as you press forward in this challenging time. Elder and Sister Earnshaw

- Marvel & Mark Earnshaw

This is a shock! Enos was a very kind man. We used to play league of legends together online as children as I stopped going to church. We recently were back in contact. He would come get tea with me and my friends! I appreciated his honesty during our reconnection. He was studying an adjacent field and showed a lot of passion for tech. Tragic to hear what happened! Hope he is peacefully resting. Much love!

- Serena Aeschilman

I was so saddened to hear about your son, Enos. He was a remarkable young man. I know how much you love your children. Your family will be in my prayers and may you find peace and solace in the Lord’s wonderful plan of happiness for the eternities. May your hearts be less burdened knowing he is in the arms of his Savior and that your Savior also knows of your pain and will comfort you and bring you peace.

- Rita F. Gardner

Dear Mickey and Sara, We send our deepest sympathies and pray that the Savior’s loving arms will surround you in your time of sorrow. May you hold the cherished memories of Enos close to your heart. ♥■ We will be praying for the “peace that passeth all understanding” to come upon you from heaven.

- Lynnette Wilson Meek

Dear Mickey and Sara and family, What a wonderful tribute to your son and brother. We send our deepest condolences and love. May all find Peace in the Lord’s gifts to Jun and us all. Your friends stand along side you all and share your celebration of Jun!

- Rick and Michele Schroedter

So sorry for your loss! My heart hurts. You are in my prayers.

- Brad Martin

Mickey & Sara & family, I know our Heavenly Father and Jesus Christ love you. They love your family. And also the Ang family...

- Nenette Fischer

No way! He has a happy life, he doesn’t deserve it, neither do his parents. Bishop Lui is the best bishop I’ve ever had, I hope him and Sister Sara could get over it ■ May God be with Enos and may the Holy Spirit comfort his parents

- Jonah Lai

Bless your dear family with peace.

- Brad and Marsha Douglas

I so appreciate your family. Our children grew up together in childhood. Enos was a bright light and has amazing acoomplishments. I am sorry he could not keep ip his earthly life longer for all to see. Our hearts and spirits are with you with all our love.

- Forrest and Olga Webster family

My condolences to my childhood family friends, the Lui's, Enos was a sweet and thoughtful person. It's been a long time since we spent time in the same city together but I know that he cared about many things and had a bright future for himself that he was trying so hard to work towards. I wish you all the time and health to get through this period of mourning and I hope that Enos will rest in a peaceful place where he belongs. Love, Katarina

- Katarina Webster

Mickey and Sarah I am deeply saddened to hear about the passing of your son. My heart goes out to you during this difficult time. May you be comforted by the outpouring of love surrounding you. Celebrating the life of a good person and mourning their passing with you and your family. Elaine

- Elaine Lee-Spears

Sending my deepest condolences to your family during this difficult time. May you find comfort in the unconditional love of your family and the savior. Our prayers and thoughts are constantly with you. Sending our love, Lori Sisk & Sherman Robinson

- Lori Sisk

On behalf of Enos' UCCU family, please accept our deepest condolences.

- Brad Norton

To the Lui Family, We, the Tam family—both parents and our four children—are deeply saddened by the passing of Enos. Watching him grow up, we have always admired his quiet strength, kindness, and dedication. His presence in our lives was a blessing, and we mourn with you in this time of loss. Yet, as we turned to our Savior, Jesus Christ, in prayer to our dear and kind Heavenly Father, the Holy Ghost comforted us. A peaceful and uplifting thought filled our hearts: God desires all His children to come unto Christ, who is full of grace and truth. The eternal truth remains—no matter the challenges, difficulties, or circumstances we face, we can choose light over darkness, hope over despair. Charity never fails. Charity invites us to bear all things, believe all things, hope all things, and endure all things. Enos lived a life of quiet service and love, and his example will continue to inspire all who knew him. May the love of Christ embrace you and bring peace to your hearts. Our prayers are with you. With deepest sympathy and love, The Tam Family

- David and Patsy Tam

Our hearts go out to you and your sweet family. We don't always understand why this happens, but are thankful for the plan of Salvation that gives us hope that we will be with our loved ones again. May God grant you peace and understanding at this time. Lots of ❤■ and ■ The Pays

To the Lui family, Please accept my condolences for your family's loss. I remember the first time I met Enos, he was humorous, energetic and had a smile that was hard to forget. Every time I saw him, he was happy as if there was a glow around him. I will always remember him in that way.

- Benjamin Ting

I will deeply miss Enos. He was a great friend, and I am grateful to have known him. He was fun to be around and taught me so much. My deepest condolences and sympathy to your family.

- Seth Mitchell

Dear Mickey&Sara, I am deeply heartbroken to hear about the loss of your beloved son, Enos. No words can truly ease the pain of such a loss, but please know that you are in my thoughts and prayers during this difficult time. May you find strength in the love that surrounds you and comfort in the memories you shared with Enos. With my deepest sympathies& Fraser

- Fraser

Mickey and Sara, Our thoughts and prayers are with you. There is nothing so devastating for a parent as to lose a child. We can scarcely imagine the heartache and sadness which you must be undergoing. We will always remember our time in Hong Kong working so closely with Mickey, who always had such pride and interest in his children and family. May Heavenly Father hear your prayers and may He in time send you the comfort and peace you desire. We admire the ablity for hard work which you taught your children. They have been such a tribute to your own dedication and love for the Gospel. You will be with us in our own prayers. Romney and Mary Sue Burke

We are deeply saddened by the passing of your amazing son and brother. May your family find a way to feel peace, comfort, and joy as you treasure the sweet memories of a beautiful young man who lived a distinguished life full of love and kindness to his fellow travelers. May you feel the love from Jesus Christ and all of your many friends that love your whole family. We love you and will continue praying for your family. - Elder and Sister Hastriter

- Larkin & Bethany Hastriter

Dear Mickey, Sara, and Family, I don't know what I can say to ease your pain except that I know Enos is with the Lord now and because of our Savior Jesus Christ lives, Enos will too. The Savior will give you beauty for ashes. Your eternal family will be reunited again and onto eternal progression together. All is well with your soul. My prayers will be with you. Love, Anna

- Anna Dong

Mickey, Sara, Ethan, and Emmria, We love you all! Enos had a very infectious smile and was always willing to help. Talking about food with him was so much fun. Our hearts go out to you and pray that you are comforted during this time!

- The Cook family

To the Lui Family, Sending the deepest condolences to you and you are in my prayers. Because of the restored gospel, I know the plan of salvation is true and one day you will meet Enos again. May God be with you in this difficult time and you are comforted by the Holy Spirit.

- Mandy Lam

Our love, thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

- Joe and Rachel Lyon

Mickey and Sarah I was saddened to know such a great young man, your son, had left us. Enos had fulfilled his mission and is now back to the Lord's bosom. May God's love be with you and your family.

- Kitty Tong

Dear Mickey and Sarah, I'm deeply saddened to hear about the loss of your incredible son. My heart goes out to you and your family during this difficult time. Although his time with us was far too short, Enos lived a life that was full of purpose, passion, and joy. I hope you find comfort in the memories of his accomplishments, his adventures, and the love he shared with all of us. His legacy will live on through the countless lives he touched. You and your family are not alone in your grief. We're all here to support you, to listen, and to celebrate the life of an amazing young man. With love, hugs, and deepest condolences, Thompson Wong

Uncle Mickey, Aunt Sara, Hei Hei and Pui Pui, We are heartbroken to say goodbye to Chun Chun. We will miss him dearly and cherish the memories we shared. Sending love and strength to you all. With love, Aunt Jenny, Aggie, Ariel, Daisy and Perry.

- Ariel

Dear Mickey, Sara, and Lui Family, We were shocked and saddened at the news regarding the passing of your son Enos. He was such a remarkable and talented young man. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. But now he is with our Heavenly Parents and our Savior Jesus Christ. We're sure Heavenly Father with use his talents to help in the great work on the other side of the veil to prepare those willing to learn the Father's Plan of Happiness. Please know we love you guys and extend our condolences to all your family members.

- Mike and Suzanne Curley

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Enos. Your family has supported our family and so many others. Our prayers go out to your family at this time.

- Matthew Taylor and Wai Lam

Dear Lui family, It is so sad to hear of the passing of your dear son. My thoughts and prayers are with you that you might feel the love of our Savior and the comforting presence of the Holy Spirit. Treasure all of the good memories of the many times you spent together and the love that you shared. Love, Sister Snell

- Marilyn Nelson Snell

Dear Mickey and Sara, How much we would love to be with you at this time to express our love and appreciation in person. However, please know that our prayers and faith are with you despite the distance. We are happy to have had the blessing of knowing Enos and pray that our Heavenly Father will bless and strengthen you in this time of difficulty. In spite of the temporary separation we know that due to God's plan and promises for you there will be a joyful reunion.
