May your hearts be filled with all the blessings your Mother has given and shared throughout her lifetime. May your ♥■ heal with a quickness. May it ease your mind that is she is no longer suffering and she is in Heaven living the dream we all hope to attain in our lives. I want to send heartfelt well wishes for healing hearts from the loss of one of the most beautiful women I know inside and out. May the good memories of your Mother, Diane, live like a beacon of light and live in your hearts forever. Our Father in Heaven had another plan. Sometimes life can be to much to bare. The world is so easy to see the dark in everything and some find it very difficult to find the tiniest of light, (sometimes me). He , Our Father, loves you all and knows you will all be okay. He would not want you all to be sad and live in regrets of what could we have done. You must have faith beyond any reasoning. You have Angels on your back and God on your side. He loves you and your dear Mother, daughter, sister, friend, grandma etc. I am sending my Sympathies and every time you feel sad. When you see a Butterfly ■ they are kisses every time you need a kiss ■ from her. Birds a chirping saying hello. Every star that shines tells you, you are beautiful as they are and one day you will be someone’s light too. Every heart rock, heart in the clouds, heart in the sand etc. is me hugging you Diane and your loved ones you left behind. We love you and miss you deeply. I know you are in the loving arms of our Savior and loved ones who have been awaiting your return. ❤■ n ■■■■■ Much love ❤■ n Hugs ■ Wendy Ferguson XOXO

Diane was a truly wonderful person and friend to me. Our times together were always fun and fulfilling. The mark of a gracious daughter of God was that she always made the person she was with feel like they were her best friend. I had the great privilege of that feeling for these last several years. My love and sympathy to all who call her mother, sister, or friend! ❤■
