

Dianne Ricks Tingey

December 11, 1951 ~ October 14, 2021

Diane was an angel on earth. What a beautiful life she lived of faith, optimism, and dedication to family. She is oh so loved and missed.

- Jane Cornelius

Dear Nathan, Jonathan, Joseph, and Anna. My wife, Janene, and I lived in the same neighborhood as your mom and dad back in the early 1980s (wow, that makes us sound so old). Even though your dad is my cousin, more than that he and your mom became such good friends. They were great examples to us and all the neighbors and members of the Crystal Heights 1st Ward. The high praise of your mom in the obituary truly captures her pure goodness, -- kind, gentle, loving, patient, thoughtful, a peacemaker, genuine, gentle, forgiving, (cute laugh), ... and actively living the virtues of righteousness. She is an elect lady. She told Janene more than once how much she missed your dad. Now I'm certain she'll often be telling your dad how much she misses each of you. Even though they're reunited together again, I know they will always be close to you. May you feel of their caring love, and of the peace of our Savior as you gather with your loved family and friends to honor and celebrate the life of your dear mom, ... and dad, ... who we love so much! Sincerely and with love, Glen & Janene Davis

- Glen Davis

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Dianne. She was one of the kindest and sweetest people I have ever met and will be missed so much here on earth. I am excited about her reunion with Paul, her parents, and Lawanna. I'm sure there is much rejoicing going on at her arrival. My prayers and love are being sent out to those family members that remain here. I know she will be watching over you. May you find peace in the upcoming days and months as you readjust. I'm so thankful for the gospel and for the knowledge of life after death. With much love, Christy Wilburn Webb

- Christy Webb

Dear Nathan, Jonathan, Joseph, and Anna; I'm a cousin of your dad and have missed him very much since he left this world. I looked up to him throughout my childhood, teenage, and adult years. From the moment I met your angelic mom, I saw her light and felt her goodness and I wanted to be just like her. What a beautiful, glorious reunion took place on the 14th of this month! I couldn't help but envision the embrace of those two wonderful people. However, I know there will be many lonely, heartbreaking days for you and your families. I also know that your mom and dad will be near you, loving you and supporting you day to day and year to year. And, thanks to the love and grace of our Savior Jesus Christ and His atonement, you will all be joyfully reunited one day. With love, Adrienne and David Warren

- Adrienne Tingey Warren