

Helen Carr Bailey

February 14, 1937 ~ November 13, 2025

To Helen, my dear and talented sister: I love you and will miss you everyday. We had some wonderful laughs and were close of heart. The conversations we shared will remain forever in my heart. I know you suffered greatly, but most of the time were resigned to the Will of God. May the angels come to meet you and take you to the heavenly paradise; there to receive your heavenly crown. ■ I thank God that we are sisters, and remember well, growing up and playing cars on the patterned carpet, while Mom was in the kitchen and Dad reading the paper in the living room ~ the times I visited you in Virginia when all the kids were growing up and the good times we had. I thank you for all the telephone conversations where you taught me to quilt! Being a “lefty” sometimes made it hard to convey those instructions for both of us, but we laughed our way through it. I will always love you and so greatly miss you. May the Divine Assistance remain always with us, and may the souls of the faithful, through the mercy of God, rest in peace. Amen. Love, your little sister, Nance. XXXXXOOOO
