Dear Jolene, Pam and I were shocked and saddened by Doug's sudden departure. Please know that you and your family are in our prayers and on the prayer roll at the temple. We treasure the time and the memories of being together in Kyiv, working in the temple, enjoying Sunday night "concerts", cooking for missionaries and sharing cultural and historic activities. I'm thinking Doug is very busy teaching and organizing the work on the other side with that same energy and zeal. The blessings we all enjoyed together in the "Camelot" that was Ukraine are very high on the list of things we are grateful for this Thanksgiving season. We know that the Lord will continue to bless you and your family and thank Him for His tender mercies. How grateful we are for ■■■■ ■■■■■■■■ y ■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ ■■■■■■■ (the plan of salvation and the love of our Savior Jesus Christ). Love and hugs, Kim and Pam

- Matthew Ives

Dear Bingham family, my deepest condolences to all of you. I know how hard it is to lose someone as a grandkid who lost her grandpa not long ago. But our Lord knows what he is doing, if you think about it, Papa Bingham left this world after having accomplished one of his dreams by going on a mission with his beloved wife, also after having in Nauvoo for a few days just the 5 of your incredible kids with you like the old times, then he got to come home and stayed spending precious time with his only daughter, his little girl, and finally had the opportunity to spend a few days just with his adorable grandkids and wife, where even sweet Landon got to show him his secret place. I'm pretty sure his heart was full and happy. Probably our Lord knew it was the perfect time to leave all of you with those memories and bring him home to heaven. Sending lots of love, Fly high Papa Bingham ■

Dear Bingham Family, My heart is just breaking for your loss. ■ While I didn't know Papa Bingham personally, it's kind spirit was contagious as I watched him as a part of the YouTube family. Such a kind and gentle soul! The hole he leaves behind in the lives of his precious wife Jolene, and beautiful children and grandchildren seems too much to bare. I will pray for the peace that passes ALL understanding that can only come from Christ Jesus himself during this very sad time. With Love to you All, Shannon Miner

- Shannon Miner

As a fan of TIHWB and OLIH, I have also become quite a fan of Mr. Bingham Sr. as well. I am so sorry for the families loss. They must be in such shock to loose such a young acting and upbeat, loveable Father, as he was so young at heart. He was a self-less man, working hard for his family and the people of his church. His loving wife must be in shock, as well as the rest of his family. May God give them all peace. May God soothe you in your grief. God bless you Doug Bingham, for a life well lived. "I shall know why—when Time is over— And I have ceased to wonder why— Christ will explain each separate anguish In the fair schoolroom of the sky— He will tell me what "Peter" promised— And I—for wonder at his woe— I shall forget the drop of Anguish That scald me now—that scald me now" Emily Dickinson

- Holly Davenport

I was so very sorry to hear of Douglas's passing. May your fond memories carry all of you through this incredibly difficult time. As soon I heard you pointed out the boats in the ocean. I knew it was papa Bingham. Tears rolling down my face. After 5 or 6 years of watching your family, your all like one of my own. Papa Bingham his smile and laugh and the things he got to due the past year. Mission trip going on all those roller coasters spending time with the grand kids. Buying his beloved her new home. So many things. He is each and everyone of your guardian angel.. He was and always will be a great man. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. Give mama Bingham a huge hug from all of us.

- Irene Shotts

I rew to love Papa Bingham thru your family YouTube videos. It was such a blessing to have had just a tiny glimpse into the man that created such a beautiful family. My deepest sympathies to Jolene and the Bingham Family I will continue to pray for all of you. Sending my love and hugs to all!

- Patricia Buckles

As a Youtube subscriber to the entire Bingham family. I came to know Papa Bingham through the many videos. What a wonderful man of God he was. Just his demeanor showed us God was always first, then his sweet Jolene, then his children. A tremendous example to all of us as to how we should live life, with a deep appreciation for everything. My heart breaks for all of you and I know God will give you the peace, comfort, and strength your family needs during this difficult time. Take comfort in knowing Papa Bingham has already heard, “ Well done, my good and faithful servant.”

- Terri Felts

I think anyone that knew, or watched Papa Bingham on YouTube, expected this. I hope you know that Papa Bingham led a legacy of giving back, and kindness with each and every step, and each and every breath. He seemed to be a wonderful man, very loving to his five children, and his 9 grandchildren. He raised 4 men and 1 lady, and showed eternal love with his lovely wife "Mana" Bingham. I hope that the Bingham family, and all the friends, can find peace and comfort in knowing how loved Papa Bingham was, and how truly wonderful of a legacy he has left behind. I can imagine that this void will never be filled, that this void will surely be always missed. But I hope some day, you all can smile at the memories made, even laugh together. Papa Bingham at the end of the day, would want you to remember the good times. All emotions are a part of life, and he'd want you to experience them all. Keep traveling as well, as you said, he was "Disneyland Dad".

- Kaitlynn

Douglas is my first cousin, son of Paul and Maxine. My mother is Evelyn Adele Bingham Johanson. I know Douglas is a wonderful and valiant man. I am so sorry to hear of his death. He is two years younger than I am. He was always fun and very smart and loving to his family members. I wish to send love to his sister Rochelle, to his sweet wife and children and many friends. I feel honored to be part of the same extended family as Douglas.

Dear Jolene, We are saddened by this news of Doug’s passing. We have such fond memories of the times so long ago when you visited us in our North Canton, Ohio home from your Virginia home. We were both so young just starting out, really. Then just this year we were blessed to receive a tour of Nauvoo from you and Doug via zoom. You were serving your mission in Nauvoo and we in the Ohio Columbus Mission. I remember so we’ll also my time with Doug in Finland then after we were home, we hooked up to go to the SL Temple several times as young single RMs . Even though we have been separated physically for many years, Marsha an I still feel that gospel friendship for you. Please know of our love for you. Bill and Marsha Weidnerl

To the Bingham Family, Although we've never met in person I have watched your family's videos and feel like I do know you. I loved your father so much as he made everyone happy. The way he interacted with his family, the grandchildren and his beautiful wife. This breaks my heart to read of his passing. I can imagine what you're feeling as I've lost my own father and I do know it's the deepest darkest hole your heart ever goes into. May God bless each of you. May He wrap his arms around you tightly at this time. Remember to cry and laugh. We are praying for you all.■■■ Chuck and Debbie Clanton "The Chuck and Debbie Show" on YouTube.

Be thou at peace Papa Bingham. Your family, through the magic of YouTube, has shared your love of family, faith and adventure and we are all blessed to have known you through your family’s blogs. I wish you all strength in faith and family as you seek all that is good during this difficult time.

- Tamra Greaney

Dearest Mrs. Jolene and The Bingham/Masden family, I watch all of the Bingham blogs the day they are posted and have for a couple of years now. I know it seems strange to be hearing from perfect strangers during this time, but to all of us you are not strangers....you are like an extension of our own families. I cannot tell you how heartbroken me and my children are over the sudden loss of your beloved Papa Doug. He was such a bright spot in all of your vlogs. The videos of all of you surprising them on their mission is a particular favorite and I am so glad that you guys have so many wonderful memories like that documented to look back on during this time. From touring his hometown on a school bus, to your recent vacations to NYC and Florida with Jared and Brit, it’s such a blessing to have this platform. I always love how Jolene and Doug still held hands and seemed to be best friends and still so in love. What an inspiration for all of your wonderful children and grandchildren! Just know that you are being covered in prayer by people you’ve never met. You are so loved and will be lifted up to our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Rest in the knowledge that he is now with our Lord experiencing the greatest of joy ever!

Jolene, I am your Aunt Irene's daughter. My heart goes out to you and your family. It is difficult too loose a loved one but the Lord has a way of comforting us. I buried my husband ten years ago. The thing that gave me the most comfort was Elder Scott's April 2012 conference talk on personal Revelation. There are sections in it that talks about the life after death. I know others who have found comfort in it too. You will be in my prayers. Nila

I was very saddened to hear of Pappa Bingham's passing just had watched him and Momma Jo in fact a few day's ago on OLIH and the kids and them were having such a great time. May God comfort you all during this hard time.

Bishop Bingham was the most selfless, loving, gentle man and a true shepherd to so many of us in our Parleys YSA Ward days. I was incredibly lucky to serve on the Ward Council and often closely hear of his love for each and every person. I last saw him when he attended my sealing to my husband at the Salt Lake Temple, and I remember walking into the room and seeing his eyes gleaming with so much happiness. Just last week I was curious as to what Sister and Bishop Bingham were up to these days. I'm so glad to hear he was able to finish his dream of serving a mission with Sister Bingham before he passed. The world will miss his light and love, but he no doubt left a lasting impression on many and a giant footprint in our hearts.

- Stephanie LeVeque

Bingham Family, I want to express my love and appreciation for having a great friend like Doug. He is remembered by me, for his smile, his optimism, his great laugh and his great example of just pure goodness. A wonderful man and great example. I loved the way he dealt with his family and all the challenges that entails. He loved every minute of it. I appreciated the way he took care of his Dad when he came to stay at your home. His gentleness and love was evident. I am very sad to have him go but I am thankful for my association with him. My condolences to all of you.Please focus on all your great memories and the love he has for all of you. It is eternal! Jay Cashmore

Jolene, It was only seven short weeks ago that we were able to embrace each of you at your homecoming. We will treasure those hugs always. It was always such a treat to sit in your living room on Young street in Nauvoo and talk and laugh and enjoy being together. How grateful we are to know of our Heavenly Father's great plan that allows us to be together eternally. We continue to pray for the Savior to envelope you in his arms and give you his great peace at this most difficult time. We love you immensely and look forward to when we can hug you in person once again. - Heidi As I've thought of Doug's passing, the following scripture comes to mind. Alma 1:1 when Alma describes King Mosiah's life. Alma says of him as it can be said of Doug, he warred a good warfare. From President Ballard, "Life isn't over for a Latter Day Saint until they are safely dead with their testimony burning bright." We love you both and look forward to seeing you on our next trip to Utah. - Pat

Jolene and family, Your faith is what has lead you to lead a Godly life with the lord by your side. Why is the question we all ask but we are not to supposed to know the answer. Doug aka Papa Bingham was a great example of what is missing in today's families. Your children were raised to love and be loved by everyone. Please find comfort in knowing that he has not left you during these dark days, he simply walks silently and will continue to be the example of a true servant to the Lord. Hearts are broken and God knows that more than anyone. Faith will guide you through and faith will give you the strength to see another day. God bless the family as the Vlogs will no longer contain that contagious laugh but if we listen closely, we can still hear it in our hearts.

Dear sweet, wonderful Bingham family, my heart is broken in a million pieces at this sad, sad news. ■■ ■ Word's can't describe how so very sorry we are for your loss. As the bible tells us-tears are a language that God understands-and at times like these, they alone can only convey the message. As someone who's lost a parent, I can certainly share in your grief; and dear, dear Jolene-oh my, I can't imagine the sorrow of loosing a life long soul mate., but having watched my father go through this similarity, II praise God in knowing the two of you have truly only just begun. Glorious eternity awaits!! As a subscriber to all three Bingham family vlogs, I' feel as I've come to know this beautiful family as dear friends. Recently I was privileged to have watched as the entire family conversed on NYC for Dan and Chelle's vow renewal, followed by a week long vacation in the Big Apple. It was a joy to watch as so many awesome memories where made. Thank the Lord Mady too was blessed to be part of this beautiful time, before needing to head to the Dominican Republic. Something I know Papa Doug is so very proud of his dear granddaughter in doing. He, in know doubt, is now with her in spirit, as she begins this new life's journey. Next Mama and Papa headed to beautiful Florida to spend ten days with Jared and Britt. Each and every day was filled with fun times and so much laughter. Everywhere they went, Papa Doug held his forever bride's hand. It was so very heart warming. ■ So many beautiful memories to cherish forever where made. Once again, so very sorry for your loss. All of my family's condolences, love and prayers are coming your way. May God bless, comfort and keep you each and everyone. ■■■

We send our love and sympathy for you at this time.It is always difficult (regardless of our faith) why these things must be. Donna and I have gone through the same process of mourning, so we know how you feel. I was reading Thursday how a famous family had lost a grandson in a race car and a concerned fan was trying to give some comfort . They said when God puts a period we we should never put a question mark. Love you!

- Larry and Donna Odum

My heart goes out to the entire Bingham family. I am so sorry he had to go so soon. Life will never be the same. Especially if all of do as his examples. To love big, love all and spread that joy. Life will be even better, all in his honor that is all we can hope for. Keep him here with you as you can. Carry him to all the adventures you go on. I always feel my father is just a sweet whisper away. And like we do with Jesus we just need to stop and listen. You'll see he hears you. I will hold all of you in my prayers. God be with all of during this most difficult time.

Kate heard today of Doug’s passing. My heart is heavy by this news. Our family will always be grateful for your kindness and compassion years ago when our daughters were in grade school. We have often said that Doug and Jolene Bingham always exhibited Christ like behavior (and this means a lot coming from a non religious family like ours). We were honored to know Doug. And truly enjoyed spending time with Jolene at the Huntsman building before you retired for your great mission adventure. Please know the McPherron family is thinking of you at this time.

Sincerest condolences to the entire family. I don't know the family personally but have often felt like part of the family through vlogs as the whole family are so welcoming. If you were to look up the word 'gentleman' in the dictionary it would simply say beside it 'Papa Dug'. The world would be a better place if there was more Papa Dugs around. He radiated love anytime he was seen on camera and you can tell this was genuine. I am grateful that as a family you have the comfort of knowing you will see him again. Papa has touched millions of hearts through his life and has raised his children to do so too. I just wanted to let you know how much of an impact he has on everyone. Douglas, thank you for being you, being true and being a faithful servant. Again condolences to the whole family. With love from Northern Ireland.

Dear Bingham Family, You don’t know me, but because of the kind, warm, and welcoming people that you are, I feel as though I am a part of the family. How truly devastating it is to learn of Papa Bingham’s passing, but really, although we grieve for our own loss, we must remember how joyful it is for Papa to be in Heaven and how he is exactly where he should be! As the Bible says in Corinthians, to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord…wow, how amazing and lucky is Papa Bingham! May the Lord’s presence and peace overwhelm you all and wrap you up in a warm embrace to carry you through the rest of your days until you are reunited with Papa again. Know there is a whole world out here praying for you all!

Dearest Bingham family, I wanted to express my deepest heartfelt condolences in the passing of an amazing man, husband, father, and grandfather. I did not have the privilege of meeting him, but feel as if I had through the YouTube vlogs of all of you. I loved him as if he had been my lifelong friend through them. And your amazing Mom who is a light here on the earth. Loved seeing the both of them through the lens, and eyes of you their children. Thank you for sharing them with us!! May God bless you all especially your Mom with peace, and comfort with the comforting knowledge of eternal families. The veil is thin, and he will continue to watch over you all until the day your all reunited. May the comforter touch you all with love, and a calming peace. God bless each, and everyone of you as you press forward in your mortal existence is my prayer.

Dear Bingham Family, My heart hurts for every single one of you. Papa Bingham was the kindest, sweetest, and gentlest soul. I’ve never seen a man care for and love his family as much as he did. He loved each and everyone of

He was such a well spoken man, and I loved listening to him talk about how happy you all made him. ❤■ To Mana Jo, Branden and Mindy, Jared and Britt, Shawn, Dan and Chelle, Justin and Lindsay, Madi, Ryler, Krew, Brexsen, Hazy, Ashton, Landon, Turin, and Ava~ My thoughts and condolences are with you all. Hello TIHWB. My sister and I are big fans and we are very sorry for your loss. We don't have enough words to say to you about how we will miss Papa Bingham and his happy mood. With are filled with sorrow, and hope that our father will bring us your family a happy future. I am very empathetic for your family and hope that life will get better. Think on the bright side-he lived a great life and got to see the kids grow up and change, and he got to make memories with you. He also fell asleep the way he would have wanted to-with the people he loves most. Have a good Christmas, and even though it will be different and you will probably be sad, you can think about all the great Christmases that you had with him. Sending our love your way, and will keep you in our prayers.

Papa Bingham will be missed. I am very sorry that this as happend.

I cant even determine where to begin. I have grown close to all the Bingham families through the wonderful world of YouTube. I remember the fist time I saw Papa Bingham on one of This Is How We Bingham's vlogs and I immediately fell in love with Papa. The Bingham's have taught me what a real family is, how a healthy family interacts, how families can live together forever and where a huge part of my conversion to the LDS faith. I have cried for 2 solid days- I feel like I lost my own dad; that's how much I loved your dad. I have to be honest, the first thing I thought of when I learned of his passing is how blessed you all are to have the special memories you have created over just the past several months. When you kids surprised them while they were still on their mission, and literally every trip as a family since then. And, its remarkable that you just moved them into their own first new home. Im sure it will be hard for Mana Jo to adjust, and I cant even begin to imagine how much she misses him, but to have video footage of him, in the new home, and playing the piano, and establishing the home really sets the tone for the continued love he will bless all who enter Mana and Papas new home. My heart aches for your loss, and all I can do it actually the most important thing to do....be kind to everyone, pray for everyone, and THANK YOU, I LOVE YOU ALL! - Michelle (Elle) Lombardo

Dear Bingham Family. I am just a stranger to you living in Australia. I was fortunate to come across the TIHWB vlogs and be introduced to the whole Bingham family including Papa Bingham. Even though I never physically met Doug, it felt like we all knew the kind hearted man he was through all of the vlogs. His love for his family and life is infectious, and seeing the way he treated people and lived his life inspired me to do better and treat others with nothing but kindness. Thank you all for sharing the service with the world. Papa Bingham may be gone for now physically but he will always be with you until you all meet again. Condolences and much love from Australia. I'm from Ohio. Watching your families videos and getting to watch your mom and dad come home on their mission trip and spend time doing things with you all has brought so much love to me. My prayers go out to your family. You husband, dad, grandpa left us sadly but left as he wanted with everyone right by his side and having the joys of memories shared with everyone in the past few months. So young and should have been here longer but God has a plan for him and I too am a Christian so it is hard to let a loved one go. Thank you, We Love you!

Dear Bingham Family, Seeing the news of Papa Doug Bingham’s sudden passing was so heartbreaking to hear about. Having never met Doug in person, I feel so privileged to have been able to watch his interactions with his kids, Jolene and grandkids - never have I seen someone's eyes shine so brightly with kindness and warmth. He truly seemed like an incredible gentle, kind, loving and caring man, who radiated nothing but positivity and warmth and a blessing to everyone around him. The world has lost a bright spark, but thankfully he's now wrapped in the arms of the Heavenly Father where there is no pain or suffering. Sending you all our deepest condolences, especially to "Mana Jo" Jolene. May God continue to bless and keep you all. Please know that you are all in our thoughts and prayers, here in Melbourne, Australia.

My favorite vlogs with Papa Bingham were when all 5 kids surprised their parents on their mission or The Lagoon Vlog or when Ryler set up his first Apple Watch. I found out about the Bingham's through TIHWB and have followed your family for quite a while. I love the joy you all have together as a family and that comes from having amazing parents and then they turn into amazing grandparents. It was such a sudden passing that I know it will take time to sink in and deal with. My mom passed about 3 years ago and I still talk to her everyday in my mind and heart. I love the inner child that shows up so often with your father and also a man with a passionate and deep love for his wife. May he rest in peace and may all of you continue to find joy from him through your memories.

- Carol Halbert

I want to begin by saying I am so very sorry for the loss of such an incredible man. He was the greatest dad, papa & friend anyone could ask for. It's such a strange feeling to care for someone so much and yet you've never met them. Watching the funeral service I cried from beginning to end. It was such a unexpected passing. The fact he held out till all his family could get there before he took his final breath just shows you the kind of man he was. He was all about Jesus, helping people and his beloved family. He had so much love for every single one of you and it would show just how much through every video he was is. I always wished Doug & Jolene would start a YouTube because they were hilarious when they wanted to be but could give such good advice when asked. I ran across this and wanted to share it because I believe it sounds like him. Miss me but Let me Go When I come to the end of the road And the sun has set for me I want no rites in a gloom-filled room Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little-but not too long And not with your head bowed low Remember the love that we once shared Miss me-but let me go For this is a journey that we all must take And each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan A step on the road to home When you are lonely and sick of heart Go to the friends we know And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds Miss me but let me go. I just feel like this would be papa Bingham to a T because he loved his family so very much he would not want you all to sit in a gloomy room crying about his loss but rejoice that he is with Jesus waiting to welcome each one of you as you arrive and to show you everything he's already seen with a smile on his face. I bet he is already in one of those big yachts he seen on his trip with Jared and Brit loving life. From the time we are young, our mother and father are the gentle hands who lead us through life, tenderly showing us which paths to take as we grow up. And when that guiding light is gone, we can feel an immense sense of loss and sorrow like no other. Some days will be harder than others and take the time to cry, it's part of the healing process. For Christmas this year I think you should get a lot of white flat rocks that can be ordered on Amazon and have everyone write a memory or two and put It in a nice container. When you're feeling down open and read some of those messages and it will make you feel better. If you think of one you wish you would've put in there, add to it. Since your family is so big I would let the container go from house to house maybe a month at a time and when you feel like you're done with the container and you've put all you want into it, give it to your mom to sit somewhere as a decoration. Again, I am so very sorry for your loss. If I didn't live all the way in Clayton, NC I would come give you all big hugs!!!! We will be greatly missed but also rejoiced for the man he was. He leaves behind a wonderful legacy! Thank You, We Love You!

- Crystal Yeaman

Bingham family, I’m so very sorry for your loss. I’ve watched you guys on YouTube for 5 years, I follow all of you who are on there. And my favorite times were seeing Mana & Papa Bingham. Papa had such a light to him. He could brighten up anyones day with his happiness and smile. He reminded me of my grandpa. So happy and carefree and loving. I feel you don’t need to personally know Papa Bingham to know he was an amazing man. I find it amazing that the last big thing he got to do was their mission, which like they said they’ve been waiting their whole lives to do it. He got to live out his dream right before the end. You all have a part of him. Part of his light, his smile, his kind heart. He’s proud of ALL of you. -Mana, you sure picked a great man. You guys were perfect for each other. Together you guys brought such an energy that everyone could feel & love. And he sure loved you. That was easy to tell. Much love to all of you ❤■ -Deanna Kilroy

To all the Bingham. I just wanted to say I'm pray for each one of you to get through this best you can. It is okay to spend a lot of time together. Just take things day by day and know that some days will be harder than other. But as long as you have eachother you'll make it through. Oh and one more thing, He's going to always be with you, whether in your heart, in memory, ect. Also ask for sign you may not always get one but there are some. My mom gets signs like rainbows, a fist in the sky, ect. I have lost 5 people really close to me in 2 1/2 years and 2 animals. My family spent a lot of time together grieving, laughing at memory, making new memories while celebrating his life. ONE LAST THING "THIS IS NOT GOODBYE IT'S SIMPLY SEE YOU LATER"!_! I love you all and hope you get through this. I'll be praying for you

Binghams, It is truly heartbreaking to hear this news. Papa Bingham had the kindest heart, his radiant smile could light up a room in an instant. May our Lord comfort you all, you are in our family's thoughts and prayers. While words can't heal the tremendous amount of pain you all are going through, turning to our Father has always been my best outlet, an incredible verse that has comforted me in my times of pain is from Chapter 16, Verse 22 of the Gospel of John, “Therefore you too have grief now, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you. God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble". We wish you all peace and comfort in your mourning. <3 Our Sincerest Condolences, Alina & Cole Sanfilippo

Dear This is How We Bingham - Branden, Mindy, Madison, Ryler, Krew, Brexen, Hazy Our Life in Holland- Justin, Lindsay, Turin, Ashton, Landon, Ava Daniel and Michelle Jared and Brittany Sean Bingham Mama Jo I am so sorry for your loss. I have watched TIHWB since 2018 and feel like I am a part of your family. Your dad was a sweet man, and through the videos, I could tell he was full of life. He loved his family very much. On June 26, 2016, I lost my grandmother due to dementia, and then my grandfather on July 22, 2016, due to him missing his wife too much and other various medical problems. It shocked us how quickly he died, so I can imagine how yall felt with this being unexpected. I am praying for strength in the coming days for your sweet family. It is hard losing someone you loved very dearly, and it does get easier but give yourself grace when you want to grieve.

Jolene and Family, I want to send my love and gratitude to you, Doug and your beautiful family. As Jay and I were out of town during Doug's funeral, we watched his service online. Our hearts were touched with the immense love and happiness that dwells in your family. Jolene, what tremendous courage you had to speak after your amazing children and express your love for Doug. When I picture you and Doug in my mind's eye, you are both smiling and so happy. I'm positive that will continue throughout eternity. It was our privilege to attend your mission farewell. I can only imagine the wonderful memories you must have of your mission together and that must be even sweeter now. Know that you continue to be in our hearts and prayers. Much, much love, Susan

As a loyal subscriber to TIHWB, Jared and Britt, and Our Life in Holand, I fell in love with mana and papa. It always made me smile when I saw Papa on camera. He truly lit up a room and even though I never actually met him it felt like I knew him forever. When I watched the TIHWBs video I was waiting for my mom to pick me up from school. and I started crying and could not contain myself. It felt like I had lost a family member. But I know the Lord has welcomed him in with big arms. Lots of Love from Athens Georgia

I have been watching videos from just about all of the family members who are vloggers for quite some time now. It's hard to believe it's been one year since you all lost such a valuable member of the family. He embodied joy in every aspect of his being. It was tough how quickly he was here and then gone but he will always be with you all in spirit and waiting for the day you will all be reunited.
