

Ingrid Ute Rudolph

April 8, 1937 ~ October 28, 2021

Henry, Paul, and the rest of your wonderful family, Sending you our sincere condolences, along with much love and support during this difficult time. May you forever feel her touch in the wind and hear her voice and laughter in the songs of birds.

- Melissa Champagne

Henry and family, My thoughts and prayers are with you.

- Grace Pantaleo

My heart is broken to hear of Ingrid’s passing and my condolences go out to the entire Rudolph family. I was only about 4 years living in Utah, when I meet Ingrid through my best friend Lynnae Harris (Ingrid’s daughter) and just like that I was taken into the family and I felt so comfortable and loved by her from the beginning. Even though we were not related, my girls always called her Oma Ingrid from the moment we meet. Ingrid has taught me so much and I absolutely loved it when she would bring us cookies, cakes or even German chocolate. Sadly we moved out of state in 2015, but I always made sure that we would drop by her house for a visit and she would go all out of her way and bake us cookies or even make a last minute cake. I will dearly miss Ingrid and she will always have a piece of my heart and I will cherish the time we spent together. ❤■

- Sabrina Mitchell

Dear Jacob and family. I was saddened when hearing of the loss of your dear wife and mother, Ingrid. I have many happy memories of her. I will always remember her warmth and generosity to me when visiting with you all on the farm. Such happy times! Take comfort in those memories and knowing and the peace she now has in God. Yours Sincerely, Martina (Freischlad) Loff

- Martina Loff

I was recently informed by a member of the Baldauf Family, here in NY, of Ingrid's recent passing. I have fond memories of Ingrid, Jake and the Rudolph family when they lived here on the farm in DeLancey (NY) where our children played together, before they moved to Sandy, UT. (Unfortunately, I was never able to accept Ingrid's invitation to visit in Utah.) My sincere condolences to Jacob and the Rudolph family. Bob Peet, Delhi, NY

- Robert Peet