He was raised in Salt Lake City with his brother Don. He attended Granite High (briefly) where he met the love of his life Jean. They were married on November 8, 1957, later solemnized in the Salt Lake Temple.

He had a thriving career in heating and air conditioning where he was a service tech, manager, trainer and owner. He served in the reserves for both the Salt Lake County Sheriffs Office and the Army. He had hobbies too numerous to list.

He served in many church callings for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, including Bishopric Counselor, High Council, Young Men/Scouting, and many others. He also served a 2 year mission in the Utah State Prison with his wife Jean where he extended for another 16 years of service. At the time of his passing he was an ordinance worker in the Oquirrh Mountain Temple with his wife Jean.
