Chad, So sorry to read about your sweet mom, I recall her very well from my youth.

- Mark Woodmansee

My sincere condolences Chad, Maria & Family.

- Bess Porter

Chad and family, We loved your mother very much! She was a delight to be around. Her life story will forever be an example of courage, love and kindness. We already miss your dad and his western music playing and now your beautiful mother. I know their reunion together was one of great excitement. We love you guys and send many thoughts, hugs and prayers your way at this time. Much love, The Halliday's

- George & Cynthia Halliday

There are no words for the legacy Erika has left on the Duncan family. Erika, shining personality will live on in our hearts. May she now be join by her love ones that awaited her up in heaven. Many prayers and love to the family.
