Debbie so sorry in your loss of your Mother. I remember when I lost my Mother - it hit hard (totally unexpected) - but I had to remember all the times I loved with her and do to this day. Smile and remember the fun times Deb it helps with the hurt. Love, Debbie Cardin

I am so sorry to hear of Jeneanne’s passing. The thing that always made the biggest impression for me was the ability she had to make everyone feel like they were part of her family. She made you feel instantly at ease and comfortable. I have thought of her often and am grateful to have known her. Love to everybody ❤■

Jeneanne was my friend at Horace Mann Junior High in Salt Lake City. I met her when she was sitting alone eating lunch by herself. I felt sorry for her and left my friends to sit by her My "friends" said, if you go sit by her, you can't sit by us anymore. So I got up and sat by Jeneanne anyway. I enjoyed her so much. She invited me into her home quite often, (it was on the way that I walked to my home) . I felt the Spirit there, though I wasn't sure what it was. I just felt warm and welcomed by both her mom and dad. I enjoyed all her siblings as well Jeneanne was the one who introduced me to seminary which was held after school. I'm not sure if this was in my 7th or 8th grade. But she became my best friend until I moved at the end of my 8th grade. .
