

Frank Alfred Rueckert

April 7, 1940 ~ January 30, 2024

We know those Rueckert (&Wilson) clans be of great folk. The parting is hard now but great is the joy when we meet again.. Never-the-less we take no small amount of joy at the up coming reunion of Berliners past, present and, need I say future. Hoffn euch zu umarmun konnnen. Mit Liebe Hal und Sal

- Sally and Harold Welling

Although I did not know Frank, I know his brother, Dean, very well as we were companions it the West Berlin Mission. Frank's obituary painted a clear and loving portrait of him and I feel that I now know why Dean and Frank's family and circle and friends love and admire him so much. Frank's spirit has transitioned from mortality to immortality and he is alive in the world of spirits and will continue in the work of the Lord on the other side of the Veil. May the family and friends be comforted at this tender and sacred time.

- Marvin Myers Johnson

We are unable to attend events honoring Frank but want to express our thoughts and love to you. I have good childhood memories of being at Uncle Frank's and Aunt Thelmas at their home on 8th South.

- Brinton and Nancy Burbidge

I got to know Frank when I became friends with his son, Mike. He was exactly as described, grumpy exterior, but soft tender heart on the inside. And yes, he could tease with the best of them, but always with a loving smile. He will be missed, not only by his family, but by everyone he touched, including me. -Matt

- Matthew & Heather Dewey