Garry was a fine man. I enjoyed the time we spent together and getting to know him. I always admired his dedication and passion for helping people and serving in his community.

It is with deep sorrow that I heard about the death of your husband and father. It is hard to lose someone so close to you. While the gospel teachings will be a great comfort to you in the future. The pain of his lose is to fresh to take comfort in right now. Try to remember him the way he was before he got so sick. Try to remember the good times that you had with him and all the silly things he would do judging judging by the person that Barbara is and all the good that she been for Blaine. Mr Bond had to of been a good father. I can assure you the veil is very thin he hasn't gone far away

Dear Kathryn, I am grateful for the opportunity of getting to know Garry and you over these last two years. Gary usually had a smile as he would peddle up and down the long hall and enter several rooms to share that smile! Occasionally when I was in my room he would knock on my door and I would tell him I was glad to see him but I was busy, so he would close my door and continue down the hall. Kathryn, you have been a friendly spiritual example to me, rather on Sunday when you offer to help collect songbooks or even offer a prayer. You always give a friendly greeting when you arrive in the afternoon after taking Garry for a walk, or to join him for our entertainment or an activity. I am glad we are friends.! May the Lord continue to bless you with comfort and peace. My love and prayers I send to you, Joyce Hanson

Dear Kathryn, We are so sorry we learn late of Gary's passing, and didn't come for the viewing. You are an example for us how to dedicate your life to loved one! And not only taking care of your husband but making sure others are served for their needs and safe. Unfortunately we learned about Gary more from obituary, but very fortunate such a nice man touched our lives, as our mom is in the same facility. May memory of your husband comfort you and your family. With love Luda on behalf of Davis family

Gary was an inspiration to me. I met him many times while he was on his daily walk. I was on the HOA for Draper City with him for a short term. He had many ideas and proposals that were implemented making Draper City more beautiful and a great place to live, especially the beautiful trees on Vestry Road. He was a sincere and a very reliable person you could always count on. I will miss seeing him on the morning walks and I know he is walking with Jesus Chris hand in hand. He will be greatly misses by many.
