

Jon Cardwell Christiansen

April 8, 1953 ~ April 13, 2026

I was fortunate to know Jon as both a friend and a business partner. He made a lasting impact on many lives, including my own. He will be truly missed. My deepest condolences to his family.

So sorry I looked up the obituary this morning.... A day late. Sending much love and healing light to both of you Cristy and Jessica and of course to all of your family.
