I was sorry to hear of the passing of Gloria she was such a sweet lady! It was always fun seeing her at Church! She was always a very Happy and cheerful person. I don't think in the shorts time I knew her she ever said an unkind word to anybody! She was always Church with her sweet husband Floyd when she was feeling good! I sure have missed seeing her and Floyd at Church! May she rest in peace now, until the the time she and her sweet husband will be reunited again someday! God bless you Floyd and hope in the coming days and months to follow,you will have thy comforting Spirit To be with you and your sweet family and know she will always be in your heart! Looking over you and your sweet family! Love you lots! If theirs ever anything I can do within reason don't be afraid to reach out to me! My number is in the ward directory.
