

Juanita Josephine Rawson Wallin

September 17, 1948 ~ June 21, 2025

So sorry to hear about the passing of aunt Juanita. She was a wonderful and amazing aunt. I always loved visiting with aunt Juanita and hearing about the Rawson side of the family. I loved getting Christmas and birthday cards every year. My thoughts and prayers are with you uncle Rick. Sending big hugs to you and your family. I love and miss you ❤■

I'm sorry for your loss. I know you came to my mother's funeral, but I'm not going to be able to make yours. But I hope everybody'll make it through. And she's probably in a better place. I hate to see people suffer thanks. Thoughts and prayers for you guys. Have a good day.

Rick, Mary must have been very surprised when Juanita walked through the veil just sixteen months after she did. The other two sisters, Joyce and Jackie, were there and I can just imagine the happy reunion they all had together. I'm sure their mother had a hard time getting her two cents in, as well. We will all miss Juanita, she was a special soul. May the Lord's choices blessings be with you Rick, love ya. Harvey

Tony, Sorry for your loss . My prayers are with you.

Hello Wallin family, Just got off the phone with Toad and he told me about the news he received from Tony about the passing of Juanita. Never a good message when we lose our loved ones. This makes me miss our old neighborhood even more, the people on our street made our childhood and teen years memories that will never be forgotten! Hugs to each of your family during this difficult time. Take care of one another, sending extra hugs from Montana!
