

Grant Kaalstad Noorda

July 2, 1930 ~ December 19, 2022

So sorry, Larry and Alison to hear about Grant’s passing. I remember him to be a very kind man…sending love today.

- Pam Lancaster

I Praise God for having a great dad like my dad. we had great times hunting and fishing. He was always there for me and my brother's. I just pray the Lord grant His mercy and grace and take him home to be with our Lord and Savior

- Bob Noorda

My condolences to the family.

- Amanda Reid

Our deepest sympathies for the loss of your love one. Uncle Grant was a special man in all our lives. God Bless

- Betsy Boshard & Family

Grant gave me my first shotgun. He took me on my first fishing trips. This outdoor tradition has been passed on to my sons and grandsons because of him. He was generous, kind humble and funny. He treated me as one of his boys and I will always love him for that. The Noorda home was my second home as a boy. I cherish the memories. I will mourn the passing of Richard and Grant more than you know. God Bless, Aaron
