Amanda L. Evans

May 10, 1977 ~ March 8, 2019

I knew Amanda in middle school, as part of the GT "nerd herd." We went to different high schools and I lost track of her as a result but I remember neither one of us had the best time in Middle School. But she was always kind to me and I tried to return the favor, although I was so awkward sometimes. I remember we both liked Depeche Mode a lot.
