

Henriette Munanui

May 9, 1944 ~ May 31, 2023

Kilène and I are greatly saddened by the passing of Henriette. She and Tekehu have supported us and have been our friends since our marriage 47 years ago. They were our game playing and traveling partners often during our missions together to Tahiti. We love you Tekehu and your family and are keeping you in our prayers.

- Bill Welsh

Dear Munanui Family, We are so sorry to hear about Henriette's passing. We have always been so grateful for her kindness and warmth. She was a true Tahitian in her love and grace. We hope that you will have some peaceful moments as you reflect upon her life and how she blessed so many lives. I'm sure she got a huge hug from her father in heaven and savior as she passed through the veil. Aroha rahi! Pat and Suzan Gerber

- Patric Gerber

Our deepest love and condolences to the Munanui family. Henriette was a great woman and we were glad to know her. Our apologies in not being their at the funeral- Jenny has been very ill of late. Our love and prayers! Faitaito! Steve and Jenny Goodwin and Family.

- Steve and Jenny Goodwin

Toutes mes condoléances à la famille recevez du réconfort et du courage, je vous embrasse

- Mahealani Tefan

Nous adressons nos sincères condoléances à toute la famille Munanui, Président Tekehu et les enfants.■■■■ Que notre Pére Céleste vous accompagne dans cette épreuve. Soyez bénis. Nous vous aimons. Tumata, Oasis et Tinihei❤■

- Wendy TERIIEROOITERAI

Henriette was a generous and loving person. Love and condolences to the family.

- Chris Swain

We were truly saddened by the loss of your eternal companion and will hold you in our prayers. It has truly been an honor knowing the two of you. With love and kisses.

- Douglas Fuller

Hi Tekehu. I was sad to hear about your precious wife passing. Ua pohe onna..please accept my aroha and and here i teye taime. Dee Savage, Terona

- Terona

Nos plus sincères condoléances à Frère Munanui Tekehu et ses enfants.

- Vanaa Tinirauarii Élise

We are saddened to learn of Henriette Munanui's passing. Her impact on our lives exceeded our expectations, revealing our deep care. Our hearts extend sincere condolences to you all, during this difficult time. May you find solace and strength, surrounded by love and cherished memories. This goodbye is not forever, but a temporary parting of ways. Henriette's spirit will forever live on, inspiring and uplifting us. Until then, know that our thoughts and support are with you. Wishing you peace and comfort, Tommy and Orie

- Tommy and Orie Yerooatea