

Jacy LaRay Hunt

December 7, 1936 ~ February 28, 2021

---

I was saddened to hear of your passing today. You and your beautiful wife are some of my favorite customers. I always look forward to seeing this awesome family in my checkout line. Lots of love and prayers to Sharon and family.

- Valentina Hutchinson

---

So sorry for your loss. I loved uncle Ray so much. I am so proud of his talents in life and job's. I loved his laugh! I will miss him dearly! I believe he is with his sisters and parents so he's happily looking down on his family. Prayers for Sharron and all his little ones. RIP Ray

- Julie Browning

---

Where lives pass, memories carry on forever. WOW he was hell of a guy! Sending my heart felt condolence to you Sharon, and your family.

- Rod Evans

---

Sharon you had a 1 in a million relationship with Jacy, one that most people can only dream of , its been many years since seeing each other but the love for you two i'v kept close in my heart for all these years, I never saw Jacy without a smile on his face ■ i love you Sharon you're a very important person in my life■■■

- JoleneRandall

---

A good friend of 40 years sadly taken. Our love and prayers to Sharon and family. He will not be forgotten.

- David & Jen

---

Sharon you had a 1 in a million relationship with Jack, one that most people can only dream of , its been many years since seeing each other but the love for you two i'v kept close in my heart for all these years, I never saw Jacy without a smile on his face ■ i love you Sharon you're a very important person in my life■■■

- JoleneRandall

---

I am so very sorry for your loss Sharon. What an Amazing man!!!! I so wish that we could have attended the service. I am sure it was beautiful, but Glen was getting a knee replacement. We admire and are so very grateful of the relationship you have with our mother. You keep her so vibrant and young. Thank you sweetheart. Please let us know if there is anything else we can do. We love you.

- Pamela Seager

---

Yesterday for some reason, my thoughts turned to Jacy ;Jr. my half brother who I had only met in person once in my life. I felt that I would like to reconnect with him once again and see how he is doing and as I began to search the internet for his name I was so sad and shocked to find his obituary. We never really knew each other in this life but as I read his obituary and all of the amazing things that he had done I was filled with regret that I had never made more of an effort to get to know him better, he sounds like a great man and I want to send to all of his family my sympathy at this difficult time. I have no doubt that it was the promptings of the Holy Ghost that caused me to think of him exactly at this time as it has been over 30 years since we first met each other. Having never had a brother in my life, I now look forward to the wonderful blessings that will come with the next life and know that I will get to know him better there.

- LaMar

---

Dear Sister Hunt I was looking for the obit for a neighbor and I was saddened to see that Brother Hunt had passed. I know our Sugarhouse neighborhood goes back many years. You folks were always 2 of our favorite people. We loved your little dogs and the opportunity we had to be welcomed in to your Home. Love David and Doris Anderson

- David Anderson