Dear Tammy and Dave, What a wonderful tribute. I wish that I had known her. Bless you and your family as you move forward in this bittersweet time, when Kay is not suffering anymore, and the loss of her magnificent presence. Love and healing to you and your family, Tracey Evans

Sorry to hear of Kay's passing. Since we were next door neighbors Kay and I spent a lot of time together during our elementary and high school years. Whenever I visited my parents in Salt Lake City - Kay's mother Ruth would update me as to what Kay and Linda (Kay's older sister) were doing. It made me feel like I was still in contact with Kay. Kay called me years ago, out of the blue and we had a nice conversation. She was exactly the same as she always was; chatty, enthused, spirited and kind. J am sure she will be missed.

- Michelle (Sheya) Lavin

I am sorry to hear about Kay's death. Working with you I feel I almost knew her myself. My heart goes out to you, and having recently gone through the death of a loved one I know how difficult this time is for you. However, you will find that the Lord is with you and your family, and will bless you in many ways. The Lord will help you to be strong and endure until the time comes that you can join Kay. Stay close with your family and continue be happy together .

- Peggy Egbert

I am grateful to have known Kay for many years. Her kind gentle and amusing spirit is something for all of us to strive for. She leaves a big hole for the family but I know you will all come together and give each other strength and love.
