So sorry to hear about Jan‘s passing. She was such a great neighbor, and I loved to visit with her. She was always so kind and thoughtful… Such a sweet lady. Although she has not been in the neighborhood for a while now, she will be missed by those of us who knew her all those years.

I can’t think of a woman more service oriented than sweet Grandma Jan. Her service and sacrifice is a legacy for not only her children and grandchildren but for all who know her; an elect lady for certain. Your family are in our thoughts and prayers. May you feel of Wayne and Jan’s love for you always. Love you. (-Sharee)

I taught yoga classes at Spring Gardens last year and Jan was one of the regular attendees. She was graceful and gracious, always asking how my family as doing. I enjoyed chatting with her after classes, and will miss seeing her smiling face. hank you for sharing your warm energy with me, Jan! I am keeping your family in my thoughts <3
