

Janice Lorraine (Defenbaugh) Miller

June 11, 1942 ~ October 23, 2020

I met Jan in 2008-ish when I started attending the Jizo knitting group on Sunday afternoons...hosted by our friend, Kay Barickman. Jan was so welcoming, inquisitive, and caring. She was so generous with her gifts of knitting and quilting...and upon my departure from Salt Lake City in 2012, she gifted me with a spectacular quilt that I have hanging on my wall in my townhome. I will miss seeing her lovely smile each year when I return to Salt Lake City for the annual knitting retreat at Alta Ski Resort. We shared some special memories sitting around knitting and giggling!!! XOXOXO
