

Janine Marie Calfo

October 21, 1965 ~ November 10, 2025

Danielle and Chris, My deepest sympathies. Your mom was one of a kind and I'm so glad I got a chance to get to know her and call her friend. Pat Denning

- Pat Denning

I worked with Janine, and though I didn't know her well, she was always kind whenever I had a question. I am truly sorry for her loss, and may her memory always be a blessing to her family and friends.

I send my deepest sympathies. I didn't know Janine long but long enough to fall in love with her and her energy. She was an amazing human who made me feel loved right back, offering to drop everything and leave work when I was stranded on the side of the freeway. I loved playing poker with her and learning from her and watching her frustrations and joys while playing together. Hearing her talk about her love for her late husband hurt my heart and gave me hope that real love exists. She will truly be missed and the world is going to be much darker without her light to brighten it. I wish I could've played with you and hugged you one last time before you left us Janine. My heart aches for the loss of your family. Much love, Diana ■ Sending my deepest sympathy to all those who loved Janine. She was larger than life, and approached life with humor and curiosity. She always had a humorous story about one of her recent adventures.

I had the privilege of working with Janine and am so grateful for the opportunity to get to know her. She was wonderfully unique, and she wore that uniqueness like a badge of honor. Janine always tried to find ways to connect with people—looking for shared interests, asking questions, and genuinely wanting to learn more about what others enjoyed. I have so many memories of her that make me smile (her Lord of the Rings Christmas sweater comes to mind, especially at this time of year). But the memory that stands out most is our last conversation, where she was so deeply kind and thoughtful. Genuine, Kind, and Thoughtful truly sum up who she was. I was so saddened to hear of her passing. The world feels a little dimmer without her. I can only imagine how many people feel this loss, given how naturally she connected with others. While I never had the chance to meet her children, she spoke of them so often and with such love that I feel as though I came to know a small part of them through her. May her kindness and spirit continue to shine through all who loved her.

Although I only got to know Janine over the past year through poker, it was always a pleasure to be at her table, whether she was dealing or playing (less so the latter, because she said she knew how I played!). I'm thankful I had the opportunity to benefit from her warmth and knowledge.
