Timothy Richard Isaacs

April 6, 1959 ~ June 23, 2019

My friends and I knew Tim while he was bartending at the Twelve Oaks Club on West Temple. After Golden Eagles hockey we used to cross the street and enjoy a night of new wave music and dancing. Always wondered what he was doing but lost track. Ran into one of the other bartenders Peter a couple of years ago. He did not now where Tim was these days. Was pretty excited to stumble across his Facebook page ad thought I could finally send him a message. The sadly I then ran across his obit. He was a great human. I really liked him. The photo with the beard is exactly my memory of him, in his black pants boots and suspenders. Always looking ahead of the trend. Peace Tim.
