Dear Linda and family how I treasure the memories we had when you lived in Boise. Many times of fun, socializing, candy making, Church bazaars, fireworks booth, etc. etc. What a fun life we had together. Our kids corresponded in age, Marilyn and Jennifer, Don And John and Ron. Please give them my best from the Davis family. We love you and wish we were there to hug you as we send our husbands, fathers and grandpas to the other side of the veil. ❤■■

Linda and family, Penny and I send our love and best wishes to you at John's passing. I know he was getting older, but he was still Dad, Grandpa and especially husband. I can honestly say that I don't know of anyone who was more universally loved than John. I worked with him for probably 30 years. he was always kind, wise and caring, and in being that, he would voice his opinion and state what he believed. I know there is no way to document the thousands of people's lives who were blessed by him. Not only in his personal life and family, but with the many people he influenced in his various counseling responsibilities and his influence with co-workers and others. We surely love him and you and please hope you know that we wish you the very best. We are believers like you and when I die, I'm going to look around for John. And if I can't find him, I have a feeling that I'm in the wrong place!! Love and Best Wishes, Harold Brown

I was so sorry to read in the paper this morning about John. It was so many years ago that I knew John and Linda. From reading the obit I could see what a wonderful man John had become and a great father. My condolences go out to you, Linda, and your family.

I send my love and prayers for peace and healing to Linda and to her and John's family after John's passing. As I read of John’s step through the veil between this world and the next, I remembered my association with him as a friend and fellow worker in LDS Social Services many years ago. John was exactly as described in his obituary. Cheerful, upbeat, kind, hard-working and constantly doing his best to befriend and lift everyone around him. His joy and zest for life were always evident and his unfailing kindness to everyone was his very nature. He is a great servant of the Lord, constantly striving to emulate those characteristics and qualities that the Savior personified. He never hesitated to reach out to serve and lift others. His life was one of selfless, cheerful service. I loved serving with John and am blessed to have him as my friend. My life has been significantly better because of my association with him. I look forward to seeing and serving with him again. William S. Bush
