

Melda Stickney Mackay

January 2, 1941 ~ August 24, 2023

I will miss seeing Melda each month. She was one of the favorite pieces of my day! Every six weeks I had the pleasure of spending a couple hours talking, learning and laughing with her. She loved her family so much. She is definitely some one i'll try to emulate. I know she will be missed by you all, but I look forward to a reunion with her one day! Sending you all my love and prayers for your comfort and peace. Love, Jen Reeves
