

Judy Brecht

November 1, 1936 ~ July 7, 2020

Judy Brecht was my Grandmother. She was an incredibly strong person. She loved intensely. If you were counted amongst her you know where she stood. She was never overbearing. Never overt. She was always present. Aware and keen. My dear grandmother, I miss you. You always made me feel funny, and ever so loved. Tell Grandpa, hi for me. We'll be seeing you two soon enough. Can't wait. Until then, I love you. -Alex.

- Alexander Washington