My heart breaks for all of you. I know losing John will always hurt. Remember the good times and know that he loved you all.

I have known John dating back to Philadelphia in 1986. He was a young handsome guy in the navy. He married my lovely younger sister, Teresa, in 1987. They have three beautiful children John, Maria and Cristina together with adopted son, Tom. A year later, I too married and moved to Italy. John and Teresa moved to Utah but we've always kept contact thru phone calls, correspondence, pictures, etc. John was a "happy full-of-life" guy with a contagious smile. John's infinite love for his children is happily reflected in every picture my sister sent me. Fond memories when we all lived in Philadelphia will forever remain in my heart. May God's presence and love be with all of you in this moment of deep sorrow. With heartfelt sympathy, Aunt Eleonora (Lori) and family

Steve and family. I know it’s tough to bury loved ones, but life does go on. My sincere condolences. John will be missed.
