

Jön Larry Sidwell "Sid" Jenson

October 20, 1935 ~ July 27, 2024

A great man and a great patriarch. Another friend on the other side of the veil. He raised amazing children particularly my dear friend Jared. I have met his sisters and a brother and truly the fruit shows the quality of the tree. I love your family and pray for peace and harmony for all his posterity in all this telestial traffic among us. Love and blessings to the family. I apologize in advance for being committed to caring for my mother this Saturday. Love Stace Lind

I'll miss you grandpa. You were an amazing father, son, husband, and especially grandpa. Love you❤■

- Janika Jenson

So sorry for your loss. It was our privilege to be Home Teachers to Dear Brother and Sister Jensen when we lived at Canyon Road Towers,. We wish you all the Lords blessings.

- Brother and Sister Spencer

I was so sorry to hear of the passing of Sid. He was such a good man and great example. I so much loved both of your parents. I'm sorry I won't be able to attend the funeral . I would love so much to see you all. Much love to your family.

Dear Jacqueline Jenson, Rebeca and I were deeply saddened to learn of the passing of your beloved Father, Jön Larry Sidwell "Sid" Jenson. Please accept our most heartfelt condolences, and know that our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family during this profoundly challenging time. We didn’t know Brother Jenson in person, but we can imagine his remarkable life, marked by devotion, kindness, and unwavering faith in the Lord. His legacy of love and service to his family and community will stand as a testament to the virtuous life he led, embodying the teachings of Jesus Christ. During moments of loss, we are reminded of the eternal truths taught by our Savior, Jesus Christ, about life, death, and the promise of resurrection. May you find solace in the assurance of our Heavenly Father's plan of salvation and the reunion it promises us with our loved ones. It is our prayer that you and your family will feel the comforting embrace of our Heavenly Father during this time of mourning, and that the Holy Spirit will bring you peace and understanding. As you reminisce about Brother Jenson's life, may you be strengthened by the love that surrounds you, not only from those near you but also from your church family who stands with you in support and fellowship. We are reminded, especially in moments such as these, that our Heavenly Father is intimately familiar with the pain of loss. He has assured us, "Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted." (Matthew 5:4; 3 Nephi 12:4). May this divine promise bring you peace during this tender time. In closing, we pray that the Lord will bless you with comfort, strength, and an abundance of peace. May the cherished memories of Brother Jenson's love and light continue to inspire and guide you all. With the deepest sympathy and love, Rebeca and Jose Alonso
