

Tyson Curtis Hunt

April 21, 1988 ~ May 1, 2020

I met Tyson as he served as a missionary in my home ward in upstate New York. The friendship that we built and the missionary work we did together changed my life. It helped me get fully active in the gospel again, inspired me to serve a mission, and left a lasting impression upon me that has stuck with me since. I never fully got the chance to thank him, but I look forward to a coming day again that I do! My thoughts and prayers go to his beautiful family and loved ones and I know that the plan of our loving Heavenly Father will allow this beautiful family to be together forever.

We are sending our love to Amanda, the boys, Tyson's parents and siblings and so many other extended family members. We are grateful we got to live near Tyson and get to know him for the last year.

Our condolences to Tyson's extended family at this loss. Elder Tyson Hunt conducted a District Mtg. one Thursday, 2009 on the Catterraugus Indian Reservation chapel in The NYRMission. He was apologetic for some reason, thinking out loud about some perceived lacking on his part. He then taught the 8 district missionaries about his feelings of the 1st chapter on Nephi 1, and the significance Elder Hunt felt for Joseph Smith the young prophet translator of that record. He said "I think this was written for Joseph Smith, and blessed him". Tyson had us open our scriptures to that chapter, then told us why each verse was a blessing to Joseph Smith. I felt the Spirit of what Elder Hunt was teaching us, and the value of the Book of Mormon—I thanked him during that meeting , saying that "Elder Tyson Hunt should never hesitate to share his feelings about the scriptures". It was for me a memorable experience as a senior missionary couple being taught by a young Elder, and District SE. I had even thought on occasion that our attendance at district meetings was optional as senior missionaries, but I have been grateful every time I think back on that meeting. gvg
