

Joseph Tucker Lorton

May 3, 2007 ~ March 16, 2021

Such a fine young man, now and forever. May you all be strengthened in the ways that our Heavenly Father knows you need, in the very moment that you need it.

- Douglas Openshaw

I'm sorry for your loss. You are in my thoughts and prayers. If there's anything I can do for you I'm here for you.

- Tim Dickerson

We are sharing in your sadness as we remember Joey. He may be gone from our sight, but not from our hearts. We hope you know you are surrounded by much love, from both family and friends. Your Family in our thoughts and prayers.

- David & Carolyn Bradley

Joey was absolutely one of my favorite people! He was a stalwart young man who exemplified a love for his family, for his country and for God. He is someone you could absolutely count on and trust. He was responsible, trustworthy and respectful. It is remarkable how much he grew and matured over this past year. He truly was mature beyond his years. He also had a quick-witted sense of humor. We will miss Joey immensely and look forward to the day when we will seem him again. I know that he is now on the other side of the veil serving and teaching there.

- Shane Nielsen

Joey exemplified service, which is a family trait for the Lortons. I was the recipient of his care as he and his dad helped me numerous times to lift or haul or move something heavy. Joey also shoveled my driveway and walks. He was and is a fine young man. I look forward to meeting him again. I'm sure he is teaching and serving now.

- Kelli Page

Joey definitely had a sense of humor that will be missed. He was always someone my son looked up to. He was an amazing young man and I’m sure he is serving and doing amazing work on the other side.

- Cori Barneck

Joey ALWAYS put a smile on my face. He has always been such a special young man. I loved having him in my class as a youngster and will keep him in my heart always. Deeply saddened by your loss. Your family is in and will remain in my prayers. May you feel peace from our Savior and hope in His plan during this most difficult time.

- Lisa Dodge

We are so very sorry for the terrible hurt and loss you are suffering!! May the Lord bless you with a sure knowledge that Joseph is home and in good hands. May the Lord also bless you with comfort, peace & the strength to endure! Love & Prayers, Mike & Laurie

- Laurie & Mike Bellows

We are terribly saddened by the death of your son and brother. There is no way to express the sorrow that is felt. Nonetheless with our knowledge of the future resurrection through the atonement of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ we can declare that your Joey will live again better than we can ever image.

- David and María Luisa Torres

Words cannot express how sorry the Welch family feels for your loss. No matter how many years or the miles apart, the entire Lorton family will always have a special place in my life. May your entire family find comfort and peace during this difficult time. Please know you and your entire family are in our constant thoughts.

- Bryan Welch

Words can hardly express my most sincere condolences in this time of sorrow. I pray that you will all be blessed with an abundance of peace, comfort, and love. If there is anything I can do, if even in the smallest of ways, I would love to support in any way I can. Joey will be greatly missed and he will always be in our hearts. I love you your family. Our hearts are heavy as we mourn Joey’s passing. He was a great example of what a difference the valiant youth can make by doing the simple and important things. Although I know he continues to live on doing the things necessary beyond the veil I know the daily interaction will be missed. Please know we pray for peace and comfort and that your hearts however broken will mend and heal. We pray that your home and family will overflow with the spirit of the comforter. We are so sorry and want you to know we love you and your family. The Neeley’s
