Josh did touch my life in positive ways even with very little interaction. Amazing. I am so very sorry that this passion of ours has taken him from you; it is not right! Please forgive us.

Josh was filled with light and life. I met him only once, on a day where we were hoping to fly far. We ended up just soaring South Side, driving around, and getting In n Out, but it was a day I'll always remember. His energy and insight were inspiring. It all makes sense, now that I found out that we both share the belief of families are forever. He was filled with the Spirit and he touched my life. My deepest condolences for his family and loved ones.

My deepest sympathies and condolences to the entire Ellison family. As one the most recent to join the PC Paragliders community and a newer Speedflyer, Josh was one of the first to warmly greet and welcome me to the group. Although my interactions were few, his impact of being a warm and caring soul was immediate. Fly higher with God Josh…■■■
