

Judith Lione Call McCarter

April 7, 1944 ~ January 2, 2025

We are so sad to hear about the passing of our sweet Judy! We loved her!! She was so faithful to attend all our work meetings! We enjoyed being with her so much!! She was kind, creative, and so generous with her time and talents! She helped us several times this past year at the information desk for Festival of Trees! We will miss not seeing her at our meetings! It won't be the same without her! Thank you for all the support we received not only from Judy, but her family as well! We send our love to all of you!! Sister McCarter exuded love and warmth whenever we saw and spoke with her. Kim, the same. Great family. Part of a great neighborhood. My sincere condolences. We love you. David Thompson

Condolences for your loss. She was a bright light, and still is. Looking forward, along with you, to the blessing from the Lord of the resurrection.

Terry is Judy's 2nd cousin. We were able to watch the service on the Computer from Buckeye, Arizona. What a beautiful service. Very touching story of her life and service to God. May we all learn from her example. Love to Kim and family. Sharon & Terry

My parents, my sisters, and I offer our deepest condolences. We loved Judy so much. During the five years we lived in Salt Lake City, from 1969 to 1974, we became close friends with Judy, Kim, Garrett, and Staci. Initially, we lived across the hall from each other. Though I was a small child, I have a clear memory of us visiting each other's apartments. My mom, Laique, who now has dementia, was remembering that Judy taught her how to drive. This is no small feat! My mom and Judy were kindred spirits, full of kindness, compassion, charity, and big smiles. I'm sure their friendship was instantaneous, and it continued for half a century. After we moved to California, Judy would write long letters to my mom, filled with stories about children, hobbies, and various events: graduations, marriages, births, deaths. They corresponded like this for decades. When Judy came to California to visit her mother, she would come see us too. Judy and Kim came again only a couple of years ago. I wasn't there, but I can see the joy in the photos -- Judy and my mom both have the most glorious smiles! As an Indian Muslim family with a disabled child, life in Salt Lake City could be alienating, but Judy was always there for us and continued to be there for us in the decades since. She is indeed a light in our lives. Thank you, Kim, for calling us on the phone and giving the news to my mom. I know that wasn't easy. Thank you for inviting us to witness the funeral via livestream. We were deeply moved by your words, Garrett's, Staci's, and those of your grandchildren and other family members. We hold Judy in our hearts. May she live on in all of you. May God bless you all.
